MOTION B

After Clause 12

LORDS AMENDMENT 5

5 Insert the following new Clause –

“Duty of care to service personnel

- (1) The Secretary of State must establish a duty of care standard in relation to legal, pastoral and mental health support provided to service personnel involved in investigations or litigation arising from overseas operations, as defined in subsection (6) of section 1.
- (2) The Secretary of State must lay a copy of this standard before Parliament within six months of the date on which this Act is passed.
- (3) The Secretary of State must thereafter in each calendar year –
  - (a) prepare a duty of care update, and
  - (b) include the update in the Armed Forces Covenant annual report when it is laid before Parliament.
- (4) The duty of care update is a review about the continuous process and improvement to meet the duty of care standard established in subsection (1), in particular in relation to incidents arising from overseas operations of –
  - (a) litigation and investigations brought against service personnel for allegations of criminal misconduct and wrongdoing;
  - (b) civil litigation brought by service personnel against the Ministry of Defence for negligence and personal injury;
  - (c) judicial reviews and inquiries into allegations of misconduct by service personnel;
  - (d) such other related fields as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (5) In preparing a duty of care update the Secretary of State must have regard to, and publish relevant data in relation to (in respect of overseas operations) –
  - (a) the adequacy of legal, welfare and mental health support services provided to service personnel who are accused of crimes;
  - (b) complaints made by service personnel or their legal representation when in the process of bringing or attempting to bring civil claims against the Ministry of Defence for negligence and personal injury;
  - (c) complaints made by service personnel or their legal representation when in the process of investigation or litigation for an accusation of misconduct;
  - (d) meeting national standards of care and safeguarding for families of service personnel, where relevant.
- (6) In subsection (1) “service personnel” means –
  - (a) members of the regular forces and the reserve forces;
  - (b) members of British overseas territory forces who are subject to service law;
  - (c) former members of any of Her Majesty’s forces who are ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom; and

- (d) where relevant, family members of any person meeting the definition within paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (7) In subsection (1) “duty of care” means both the legal and moral obligation of the Ministry of Defence to ensure the wellbeing of service personnel.
- (8) None of the provisions of this section may be used to alter the principle of combat immunity.”

COMMONS REASON

The Commons disagree to Lords Amendment 5 for the following Reason –

- 5A Because it is not necessary, and would not be practicable, to define a legally binding standard of care in relation to the matters referred to in the Lords Amendment.

LORDS NON-INSISTENCE AND AMENDMENT IN LIEU

The Lords do not insist on their Amendment 5 to which the Commons have disagreed for their Reason 5A, but do propose Amendment 5B in lieu –

- 5B After Clause 12, insert the following new Clause –
