

Armed Forces Bill

MARSHALLED
LIST OF AMENDMENTS
TO BE MOVED
IN GRAND COMMITTEE

The amendments have been marshalled in accordance with the Instruction of 20th October 2021, as follows –

Clauses 1 and 2	Clause 11
Schedule 1	Schedule 4
Clauses 3 to 9	Clauses 12 to 15
Schedule 2	Schedule 5
Clause 10	Clauses 16 to 26
Schedule 3	Title.

[Amendments marked ★ are new or have been altered]

Amendment
No.

Schedule 1

BARONESS GOLDIE

- 1 Page 40, line 9, at end insert –
“(3A) After subsection (2) insert –
“(2A) In the case of proceedings where the number of lay members would (but for this subsection) be three, a judge advocate may, in accordance with Court Martial rules, direct that the number of lay members is to be four.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would allow a judge advocate to direct that a Court Martial should comprise four rather than three lay members. Court Martial rules will set out the circumstances in which such a direction may be made.

- 2 Page 40, line 15, leave out from “members” to end of line 16 and insert –
“(a) from six to five, or
(b) where a direction has been made under subsection (2A), from four to three,
if a judge advocate gives a direction to that effect.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would allow a judge advocate to direct that a Court Martial comprising four lay members will remain validly constituted if the number of lay members is reduced to three. Court Martial rules will set out the circumstances in which such a direction may be made.

LORD THOMAS OF GRESFORD
LORD THOMAS OF CWMGIEDD

3 Page 41, line 19, leave out paragraph 4 and insert –

“Findings and Sentence

4 (1) Section 160 of Armed Forces Act 2006 (Decisions of Court Martial: finding and sentence) is amended as follows.

(2) Leave out subsections (1), (2) and (3) and insert –

“(1) The finding of the Court Martial on a charge must be determined by votes of the members of the Court Martial other than the judge advocate (the “lay members”) and –

- (a) where there are three lay members, must be a finding with which no fewer than two of them agree;
- (b) where there are five lay members, must be a finding with which no fewer than four of them agree;
- (c) where there are six lay members, must be a finding with which no fewer than five of them agree.

(2) Any sentence passed by the court martial must be determined by the judge advocate alone, following consultation with the lay members.

(3) The lay members are not entitled to vote on the sentence.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides both for qualified majority verdicts by lay members of the Court Martial alone and for sentencing subject to consultation with the lay members, by the Judge Advocate alone.

BARONESS GOLDIE

4 Page 41, line 26, at end insert –

“(aa) where there are four lay members, must be a finding with which no fewer than three of them agree;”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would provide that where a Court Martial comprises four lay members, the finding of the Court Martial on a charge must be a finding with which no fewer than three of them agree.

Clause 7

LORD COAKER
LORD THOMAS OF CWMGIEDD

5 Page 4, line 27, at end insert –

“(4A) Guidance under subsection (3)(a) must provide that where offences of murder, manslaughter, domestic violence, child abuse, rape or sexual assault with penetration are alleged to have been committed in the United Kingdom, any charges brought against a person subject to service law shall normally be tried in a civil court unless, by reason of specific naval or military complexity involving the service, the Attorney General consents to trial by court martial.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure the most serious crimes – murder, manslaughter, domestic violence, child abuse, rape and sexual assault with penetration – are tried in civilian courts when committed in the UK unless the Attorney General has specifically consented for such crimes to be tried by court martial by reason of complexity involving the service.

6 Page 4, line 27, at end insert –

“(4A) The general principles set out in the guidance under subsection (3)(a) must ensure that due consideration is given to –

- (a) the ordinary right of a defendant in the United Kingdom to trial for certain offences by a randomly selected jury of 12 persons;
- (b) the view of the defendant as to the choice of jurisdiction;
- (c) the view of the complainant or victim of the alleged offence as to the choice of jurisdiction;
- (d) the way in which the offence was investigated;
- (e) the relevance to the fairness and effectiveness of the trial of –
  - (i) knowledge of specific naval or military complexity;
  - (ii) knowledge of naval or military codes of conduct or methods of operation or rules of discipline;
  - (iii) experience of naval or military service to the determination of whether conduct was honest or dishonest by the standards of ordinary decent people;
  - (iv) any differences in the procedure as between by the civilian police and service police applicable to the investigation of the offence or as between the Crown Prosecution Service and the Service Prosecuting Authority in the conduct of the prosecution of the offence;
  - (v) the intended location of the trial;
- (f) the desirability of a uniform approach to the exercise of the jurisdiction as between prosecutions in the Courts of England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

(4C) Before a protocol may be agreed under subsection (1), the Secretary of State must also lay a draft of the protocol before Parliament.

- (4D) If, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve the draft of the protocol, the protocol may not be agreed.
- (4E) If no such resolution is made within that period, the protocol may be agreed.
- (4F) If the protocol is agreed, the Secretary of State must publish it and lay it before Parliament.
- (4G) In this section, the “40-day period”, in relation to a draft of a protocol, means the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before Parliament (or, if it is not laid before each House of Parliament on the same day, the later of the 2 days on which it is laid).
- (4H) For the purposes of calculating the 40-day period, no account is to be taken of any period during which—
  - (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
  - (b) both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (4I) Where the Courts of England and Wales and the Court Martial have concurrent jurisdiction over any offence wherever committed, the principles set out in a protocol agreed under subsection (1) should be applied by the Director of Service Prosecutions and the Director of Public Prosecutions in deciding the jurisdiction in which the prosecution should be brought.”

LORD CRAIG OF RADLEY

Lord Craig of Radley gives notice of his intention to oppose the Question that Clause 7 stand part of the Bill.

Member’s explanatory statement

It lacks clarity on the content of the protocols which could be worded differently in the devolved arrangement.

After Clause 7

LORD MORRIS OF ABERAVON
LORD THOMAS OF CWMGIEDD

7 Insert the following new Clause—

“Review of the Court Martial

- (1) The Secretary of State must commission a panel to review the operation of the Court Martial, in particular to consider bringing the Court Martial rules into line with Crown Court procedures in respect of trials of murder, manslaughter, rape and other serious injury offences.
- (2) The review must consider whether it is appropriate that—
  - (a) such cases should be tried by a judge nominated by the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales and a jury of 12 persons;
  - (b) the Court should be enabled to deliver either a unanimous verdict or a majority verdict, in accordance with procedures similar to those used in the Crown Court, provided that the numbers in a majority decision be made public.”

Clause 8

LORD COAKER
BARONESS BRINTON

- 8 Page 9, line 17, at end insert –
“(d) a relevant employment function,
(e) a relevant pensions function,
(f) a relevant compensation function,
(g) a relevant social care function,
(h) a relevant criminal justice function, or
(i) a relevant immigration function.”

LORD COAKER
LORD MACKAY OF CLASHFERN
BARONESS BRINTON
BARONESS SMITH OF NEWNHAM

- 9 Page 9, line 18, at end insert –
“(za) the Secretary of State;”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would place the same legal responsibility to have 'due regard' to the Armed Forces Covenant on central government as the Bill currently requires of local authorities and other public bodies.

LORD COAKER
BARONESS BRINTON

- 10 Page 11, line 16, at end insert –
“(d) a relevant employment function,
(e) a relevant pensions function,
(f) a relevant compensation function,
(g) a relevant social care function,
(h) a relevant criminal justice function, or
(i) a relevant immigration function.”

LORD COAKER

(h) a relevant criminal justice function, or
(i) a relevant immigration function.”

- 12 Page 14, line 13, at end insert –
“(d) a relevant employment function,
(e) a relevant pensions function,
(f) a relevant compensation function,
(g) a relevant social care function,
(h) a relevant criminal justice function, or
(i) a relevant immigration function.”

LORD COAKER

13 Page 18, line 28, at end insert –

343AG Section 343AF: report

- (1) The Secretary of State must lay a report before each House of Parliament no later than three months after the day on which the Armed Forces Act 2021 is passed, and thereafter must make a report at least once in every calendar year.
- (2) The report in subsection (1) must set out how the powers in section 343AF will work in practice.
- (3) Any report published under subsection (1) after the initial report made three months after the Armed Forces Act 2021 is passed must include –
  - (a) a statement detailing how the powers granted through section 343AF have been used since the last report was issued,
  - (b) a review of the relevance of the listed bodies and functions in section 343AF in relation to the Armed Forces Covenant annual report under section 343A of this Act, and
  - (c) the outcome of a consultation conducted by the Secretary of State with the Armed Forces Covenant Reference Group on the bodies and functions listed in section 343AF in regard to their appropriateness and relevance as part of the Armed Forces Covenant annual report.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to set out how powers in the Bill could be used to widen its scope to address all matters of potential disadvantage for service personnel under the Armed Forces Covenant including employment, pensions, compensation, social care, criminal justice and immigration.

LORD LANCASTER OF KIMBOLTON

14 Page 18, line 28, at end insert –

“343AG Regional committees

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision to give committees established under section 25 of the Social Security Act 1989, known as Veterans Advisory and Pensions Committees, additional functions specified in the regulations relating to all former members of Her Majesty’s forces and their relevant family members, and a new name.
- (2) The regulations may in particular provide that it is a function of the committees –
  - (a) to report and make recommendations to the Secretary of State on matters that are or may be relevant to –
    - (i) their armed forces covenant report, and
    - (ii) sections 343AA to 343AD and guidance issued under section 343AE;

- (b) to provide a distinct, identifiable, and independent point of reference in their region for both the veteran community and all those supporting it;
- (c) to raise awareness of, and support the implementation of—
  - (i) services provided to the veteran community alone or with others,
  - (ii) the Government’s strategy for veterans, and
  - (iii) the terms of armed forces covenant;
- (d) to act as an advocate, promoter, facilitator, or communicator of services that are relevant to the veteran community;
- (e) to report and make representations and recommendations on existing or proposed services that are relevant to the veteran community.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to extend the statutory functions of Veterans Advisory and Pensions Committees (VAPCs), currently limited to functions relating to compensation schemes for veterans and their families (the War Pensions and the Armed Forces Compensation Schemes) to all aspects of veteran life.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would make consequential provision in connection with the new Clause proposed by Baroness Goldie to be inserted after Clause 11.

After Clause 11

BARONESS GOLDIE

- 42 Insert the following new Clause –

“Framework for establishment of tri-service serious crime unit

- (1) The Armed Forces Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 365A (Provost Marshals: appointment), in subsection (1), after “force” insert “, or to be Provost Marshal for serious crime,”.
- (3) In section 115A (Provost Marshal’s duty in relation to independence of investigations) –
  - (a) in subsection (1), for “This section” substitute “Subsection (2)”;
  - (b) after subsection (2) insert –
    - “(2A) The Provost Marshal for serious crime has a duty, owed to the Defence Council, to seek to ensure that all investigations carried out by the tri-service serious crime unit are free from improper interference.”;
  - (c) in subsection (3), at the end insert “or (as the case may be) the unit.”

- (4) In section 375 (definitions relating to police forces)—
- (a) in the heading, after “to” insert “the service police and other”;
  - (b) after subsection (1) insert—
    - “(1A) In this Act the “tri-service serious crime unit” means a unit under the direction of the Provost Marshal for serious crime, each member of which is a member of a service police force.”
- (5) Schedule (Tri-service serious crime unit) makes further provision about the tri-service serious crime unit and the Provost Marshal for serious crime.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument make such provision amending or revoking any provision of subordinate legislation made before the passing of this Act as appears to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in consequence of any provision of this section or Schedule (Tri-service serious crime unit).
- (7) Regulations under subsection (6) may include transitional provisions or savings.
- (8) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (6) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (9) In subsection (6) “subordinate legislation” means—
- (a) subordinate legislation within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978;
  - (b) an instrument made under an Act of the Scottish Parliament, or
  - (c) an instrument made under Northern Ireland legislation.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment and the amendment in the name of Baroness Goldie to insert a new Schedule after Schedule 4 would make provision in connection with the establishment of a tri-service serious crime unit and with regard to the functions of the Provost Marshal for serious crime who is to be the head of that unit.

LORD COAKER

LORD ROBERTSON OF PORT ELLEN

LORD THOMAS OF GRESFORD

As an amendment to Amendment 42

- 43★ In subsection (3)(b), in inserted subsection (2A), leave out from “Council,” to end of subsection (2A) and insert “to ensure all investigations are operationally independent from the military chain of command.”;

As an amendment to Amendment 42

- 44★ After subsection (4) insert—
- “(4A) The tri-service serious crime unit must contain a victim and witness care unit, funding for which is to be made available by the Secretary of State.
  - (4B) The Deputy Provost Marshal for serious crime must be a civilian appointment.

- (4C) The Provost Marshal for Serious Crime must produce a report annually to the Minister chairing the Service Justice Board, who must arrange for the report to be laid before Parliament.
- (4D) Before the tri-service serious crime unit is established, a Strategic Policing Board, consisting of a Non-Executive Director (who is also a member of the Service Justice Executive Group), a retired Chief Constable, a recently retired senior military officer, and a retired Judge, must be established to provide assurance and governance of the Provost Marshal for Serious Crime and the Defence Serious Crime Unit.
- (4E) The tri-service serious crime unit must be established by 1 April 2022.
- (4F) By 1 July 2022, the Provost Marshal for Serious Crime, Director of Service Prosecutions and Judge Advocate General must have agreed protocols on fatalities and ill treatment cases.”

After Schedule 4

BARONESS GOLDIE

    - “(b) a requirement to appoint a person serving in a body selected by the Provost Marshal which is—
    - (i) a police force,
    - (ii) another service police force, or
    - (iii) the tri-service serious crime unit.”
- (5) After subsection (4A) insert—
- “(4B) A requirement under this section imposed on the Provost Marshal for serious crime may be—
- (a) a requirement to appoint a person serving in the tri- service serious crime unit, or
  - (b) a requirement to appoint a person serving either in a police force selected by the Provost Marshal or in a service police force selected by the Provost Marshal.”
- (6) In subsection (5), for paragraph (b) substitute—
- “(b) a requirement to appoint a person serving in a body selected by the appropriate person which is—
- (i) a police force, a service police force or the tri- service serious crime unit, or
  - (ii) a public body (not falling within sub-paragraph (i)) having functions which consist of or include the investigation of offences.”
- (7) In subsection (6) —
- (a) in paragraph (b), for the words from “a police” to “body” substitute “a body mentioned in subsection (4)(b), (4A)(b), (4B)(b) or (5)(b)”;
  - (b) in the words after paragraph (b), after “(4A)” insert “, (4B)”.
- (8) In subsection (7) —
- (a) in the words before paragraph (a), after “body” insert “or by the Provost Marshal for serious crime”;

After Schedule 4 - continued

- (b) in paragraph (a), after “body” insert “or (as the case requires) the Provost Marshal for serious crime”.
- (9) After subsection (7) insert –
- “(8) In this section “tri-service serious crime unit” means the unit described in section 375(1A) of the Armed Forces Act 2006.”
- 5 In section 20 (inquiries by investigating officers), after subsection (2) insert –

This new Clause will ensure that Commonwealth and Gurkha veterans applying for Indefinite Leave to Remain following four years of service will only pay the unit cost of an application.

LORD COAKER

50 Insert the following new Clause—

“Report on dismissals or discharges from the Armed Forces on grounds relating to sexual orientation or gender identity

- (1) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report on the number of people who have been dismissed or discharged from the Armed Forces on the grounds relating to sexual orientation or gender identity.
- (2) The report under subsection (1) must include cases where—
  - (a) there is formal documentation citing sexual orientation as the reason for their dismissal, or
  - (b) there is evidence of sexual orientation or gender identity being a reason for their dismissal, though another reason is cited in formal documentation.
- (3) The report under subsection (1) must make recommendations for appropriate compensation to be awarded, including but not limited to—
  - (a) the restoration of ranks,
  - (b) pensions, and
  - (c) other forms of financial compensation.
- (4) The report must include a review of the cases of those service personnel who as a result of their sexual orientation were convicted of service discipline offences as a consequence of engaging in conduct which, if occurring in the same circumstances today, would not now be an offence and make recommendations on how to address such convictions.

- (5) The report must include dismissals and discharges back to at least 1955.
- (6) The first report under subsection (1) must be laid no later than six months after the day on which this Act is passed.
- (7) The Secretary of State may make further reports under subsection (1) from time to time.”

Member’s explanatory statement

“333A Armed Forces Federation

- (1) There shall be an Armed Forces Federation for the United Kingdom for the purpose of representing members of the Armed Forces in the United Kingdom in all matters affecting their welfare, remuneration and efficiency, except for—
  - (a) questions of promotion affecting individuals, and
  - (b) (subject to subsection (2)) questions of discipline affecting individuals.
- (2) The Armed Forces Federation may represent a member of the armed forces at any proceedings or on an appeal from any such proceedings.
- (3) The Armed Forces Federation must act through local and central representative bodies.
- (4) This section applies to reservists of the Armed Forces as it applies to members of the Armed Forces, and references to the Armed Forces are to be construed accordingly.

333B Regulations for the Armed Forces Federation

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
  - (a) prescribe the constitution and proceedings of the Armed Forces Federation, or
  - (b) authorise the Federation to make rules concerning such matters relating to their constitution and proceedings as may be specified in the regulations.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations under this section may make provision—
  - (a) with respect to the membership of the Federation;
  - (b) with respect to the raising of funds by the Federation by voluntary subscription and the use and management of funds derived from such subscriptions;
  - (c) with respect to the manner in which representations may be made by committees or bodies of the Federation to officers of the Armed Forces and the Secretary of State; and

- (d) for the payment by the Secretary of State of expenses incurred in connection with the Federation and for the use by the Federation of premises provided by local Armed Forces bodies for Armed Forces purposes.
- (3) Regulations under this section may contain such supplementary and transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate, including provisions adapting references in any enactment (including this Act) to committees or other bodies of the Federation.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (5) This section applies to reservists of the Armed Forces as it applies to members of the Armed Forces.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause would create a representative body for the Armed Forces, akin to the Police Federation, which would represent their members in matters such as welfare, pay and efficiency.

52 Insert the following new Clause—

“Universal Credit

- (1) The Government must publish annual statistics on the number of veterans who are receiving universal credit.
- (2) These statistics should be included in the annual Armed Forces covenant report.”

This amendment is based on recommendations in the House of Commons Defence Sub-Committee Women in the Armed Forces report, “Protecting Those Who Protect Us: Women in the Armed Forces from Recruitment to Civilian Life”.

54 Insert the following new Clause—

“Recommendations of the Service Complaints Ombudsman

Within three months of the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State must make the recommendations of the Service Complaints Ombudsman binding on the Armed Forces and the Ministry of Defence, including a clear timescale and action plan for implementation of changes where they are recommended.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is based on recommendations in the House of Commons Defence Sub-Committee Women in the Armed Forces report, “Protecting Those Who Protect Us: Women in the Armed Forces from Recruitment to Civilian Life”.

55 Insert the following new Clause—

“Experiences of veterans by sex, gender or other protected characteristics

The annual report of the Armed Forces Covenant must include a metric to monitor the experiences of veterans by sex or gender and by other protected characteristics.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is based on recommendations in the House of Commons Defence Sub-Committee Women in the Armed Forces report, “Protecting Those Who Protect Us: Women in the Armed Forces from Recruitment to Civilian Life”.

56 Insert the following new Clause—

“Armed Forces Champions

- (1) A Minister of the Crown must make provision for 100 Armed Forces Champions to be employed throughout the Jobcentre Plus network for purposes of fulfilling the Government’s commitment to the Armed Forces Covenant.
- (2) An “Armed Forces Champion” is an employee of Jobcentre Plus who has responsibility for giving employment support and benefits advice to veterans, and for raising awareness of particular issues faced by veterans and their families within the Jobcentre Plus network.
- (3) An evaluation of this support, statistics on how many veterans have been supported by champions, and whether more champions are needed should be included in the annual Armed Forces Covenant Report.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure 100 Armed Forces Champions across the Jobcentre network.

LORD CASHMAN

LORD LEXDEN

57 Insert the following new Clause—

“Disregards and pardons for convictions of certain service offences

- (1) The Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 is amended as follows.

        - (vi) the Naval Discipline Act 1957; and
      - (b) regulated, or was used in practice to regulate, sexual activity between persons of the same sex.
    - (1B) Where an offence once covered activity other than sexual activity between persons of the same sex, the offence falls within subsection (1A) only to the extent that it once covered sexual activity between persons of the same sex.
    - (1C) In this section, “sexual activity between persons of the same sex” includes –
      - (a) any physical or affectionate activity between persons of the same sex which is of a type which is characteristic of persons involved in an intimate personal relationship,
      - (b) conduct intended to introduce or procure such activity.”
- (e) in subsection (3)(a), before the words “the other person” insert “in respect of an offence mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c)”,
- (f) in subsection (3)(b), substitute the full stop with “, or”,
- (g) after subsection (3)(b), insert –
  - “(c) in respect of an offence that falls within subsection (1A) the conduct constituting the offence, if occurring in the same circumstances, would not be an offence on the day on which this subsection comes into force.””

Member’s explanatory statement

The purpose of this new Clause is to enable armed forces personnel who were convicted of service discipline offences as a consequence of engaging in same-sex sexual acts, of a kind that would be lawful today, to apply to have a conviction disregarded and, if successful, be pardoned.

58 Insert the following new Clause—

“Posthumous pardons for convictions of certain service offences

- (1) A person who has been convicted of an offence which falls within section 92(1A) of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 (“the 2012 Act”) and who has died before this section comes into force, or dies during the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force, is pardoned for the offence if the conduct constituting the offence, if occurring in the same circumstances, would not be an offence on the day on which this section comes into force.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, section 92(1A)(a) of the 2012 Act is to be read as including offences contained in any provision in the following enactments—
  - (a) 13 Chas. 2 c. 9 (1661) (An Act for the regulation and better government of the navy),
  - (b) 22 Geo. 2 c. 33 (1749) (An Act for amending and consolidating the laws relating to the navy),

  - (e) the Naval Discipline Act 1864,
  - (f) the Army Discipline and Regulation Act 1879,and in any provision in relevant Articles of War.
- (3) A pardon under this section does not—
  - (a) affect any conviction or sentence, or
  - (b) give rise to any right, entitlement or liability.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects the prerogative of mercy.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the following provisions of section 101 of the 2012 Act apply for the purposes of this section as they apply for the purposes of Chapter 4 of Part 5 of that Act—
  - (a) in subsection (1), the definition of “conviction” and “sentence” (and the related definition of “service disciplinary proceedings”),
  - (b) subsections (2), (5) and (6).
- (6) The definition of “service disciplinary proceedings” in section 101(1) of the 2012 Act applies in accordance with subsection (5) with the modification that it also includes any proceedings (whether in England and Wales or elsewhere) under any provision mentioned in subsection (2) of this section.
- (7) In this section—

“relevant Articles of War” means Articles of War made under—

  - (a) the Mutiny Act 1878,
  - (b) the Marine Mutiny Act 1878, or
  - (c) any Act previously in force corresponding to either of those Acts.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The purpose of this new Clause is to provide posthumous pardons to armed forces personnel who were convicted of service discipline offences as a consequence of engaging in same-sex sexual acts, of a kind that would be lawful today, and who have since died or die within six months of these provisions coming into force.

LORD BROWNE OF LADYTON
LORD CLEMENT-JONES
LORD HOUGHTON OF RICHMOND
LORD CRAIG OF RADLEY

- (1) Within three months of this Act being passed, the Secretary of State must commission a review of the implications of increasing autonomy associated with the use of artificial intelligence and machine learning, including in weapons systems, for legal proceedings against armed forces personnel that arise from overseas operations, and produce recommendations for favourable legal environments for the United Kingdom’s armed forces operating overseas, including instilling domestic processes and engaging in the shaping of international agreements and institutions.
- (2) The review must consider—
  - (a) what protection and guidance armed forces personnel need to minimise the risk of legal proceedings being brought against them which relate to overseas operations in response to novel technologies,
  - (b) how international and domestic legal frameworks governing overseas operations need to be updated in response to novel technologies, and
  - (c) what novel technologies could emerge from the Ministry of Defence and the United Kingdom’s allies, and from the private sector, which could be used in overseas operations.
- (3) Within the period of one year beginning on the day on which the review is commissioned, the Secretary of State must lay a report before Parliament of its findings and recommendations.”
