1 Page 1, line 4, at end insert –

“(1A) The function of the Committee is to determine whether, in relation to the process of the formulation and implementation of policy subsequent to the Committee’s establishment, it is satisfied the Government is having all due regard to the ways in which the policy might have an adverse effect on the welfare of animals as sentient beings.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This makes clear that the Committee’s remit relates to the process of the formulation and implementation of policy but only that which has been formulated and implemented after the Committee’s formation.

LORD MANCROFT
LORD MARLAND

2 Page 1, line 4, at end insert –

“(1A) The function of the Committee is to determine whether, in the process of formulating policy, it is satisfied the Government is having, or has had, all due regard to the ways in which the policy might have an adverse effect on the welfare of animals as sentient beings.

(1B) It is not the function of the Committee to comment on the policy decisions of Ministers or to recommend future policy or changes to existing policy.

(1C) It is for Ministers to take into account any other considerations of public interest, including economic, cultural and religious considerations, as well as the impact on different species, in the formulation and implementation of any policy.

(1D) Schedule (Animal Sentience Committee) has effect.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This would clarify the Committee’s role and make clear the Committee is limited to commenting on process. It also makes explicit that Ministers should take into account any other public interest considerations. It gives effect to the Schedule, which sets out the Committee’s role and function.

- (18) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (17) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

VISCOUNT RIDLEY

9 Leave out Clause 1 and insert the following new Clause—

“Animal Sentience Committee

- (1) A Committee within the Cabinet Office, called the Animal Sentience Committee, will be established and maintained.
- (2) The function of the Committee will be to determine whether in the process of formulating and implementing policy it is satisfied that Ministers of State and the departments of state are having, or have had, all due regard to the ways in which the policy might have an adverse effect on the welfare of animals as sentient beings.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is intended to reduce conflict over membership by creating an internal committee of the Cabinet Office.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

10 Leave out Clause 1

After Clause 1

VISCOUNT RIDLEY

11 Insert the following new Clause –

“Animal Welfare Strategy

- (1) The Cabinet Office Animal Sentience Committee must publish and lay before Parliament an animal welfare strategy within 12 months of the passing of this Act.
- (2) The animal welfare strategy must set out the process by which government departments and Ministers are to ensure that in the formulation or implementation of policy all due regard has been had to any adverse welfare consequences for the welfare of animals as sentient beings.
- (3) Each department must notify the Committee of any policy under consideration where there is a reasonable likelihood that it would have an adverse impact on the welfare of animals.
- (4) Where the Committee is of the view that in the process of formulating or implementing policy a department has not complied, or is not complying, with the process set out in the strategy and therefore may not be having, or has not had, all due regard to animal welfare, the Committee can make recommendations to that department or request an explanation from the relevant minister, and any recommendations or explanation must be made in writing and published.
- (5) Recommendations and explanations need not be published if they concern a matter of national security or commercially sensitive information.
- (6) Failure to comply with the process set out in the strategy, will not automatically be taken as a failure to have had all due regard to animal welfare, if the Minister can demonstrate that they have met the objective of having had all due regard by other means.
- (7) Ministers and departments must provide the Committee with any information the Committee reasonably requests to enable it to carry out its function.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that there is a clear strategy setting out how the animal welfare implications of policies in formulation or implementation are to be incorporated in the process of developing, deciding and implementing those policies. This would ensure that the same process applied across all departments. The amendment is to be understood together with the amendment to replace Clause 1, in the name of Viscount Ridley.

Clause 2

BARONESS MALLALIEU

12 Page 1, line 9, after “any” insert “future”

THE EARL OF KINNOULL
LORD MOYLAN
LORD TREES

13 Page 1, line 9, after “policy” insert “concerning—
(a) agriculture,

- (b) fisheries,
- (c) transport,
- (d) internal market,
- (e) space,
- (f) research and technology,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to limit the remit of the Sentience Committee to those areas of policy covered by the Lisbon Treaty, Article 13 of Title II, to which the UK was a party before Brexit.

BARONESS MALLALIEU
LORD HOWARD OF RISING
LORD FORSYTH OF DRUMLEAN

14 Page 1, line 9, leave out “or has been”

THE EARL OF CAITHNESS

15 Page 1, line 9, leave out “or has been formulated or implemented” and insert “formulated”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment encourages the Committee to look at current policy and at established policy having first obtained the written consent of the Secretary of State.

BARONESS MALLALIEU
LORD HOWARD OF RISING
BARONESS MEYER

16 Page 1, line 9, leave out “or implemented”

LORD MANCROFT
LORD MARLAND

17 Page 1, line 10, leave out “may” and insert “must”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure the Committee is required to report on all policy which may have an effect on animal welfare across all government departments.

THE EARL OF CAITHNESS

18 Page 1, line 11, at end insert –

“(1A) When any government policy has been formulated or implemented the Committee may produce a report containing its views on the question in subsection (2) having first made public the scientific evidence to justify such a report and obtained the written consent of the Secretary of State.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment encourages the Committee to look at current policy and at established policy having first obtained the written consent of the Secretary of State.

LORD HOWARD OF RISING

19 Page 1, line 12, leave out “or has had”

20 Page 1, line 13, leave out “all”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment probes why “all” is added to intensify normal “due regard”.

21 Page 1, line 13, leave out “adverse”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows the Committee to consider positive impact on welfare of other animals, for example in the control of vermin.

LORD MANCROFT

22 Page 1, line 14, at end insert –

“(2A) The report must state whether in the view of the Committee the question in subsection (2) has been answered in the affirmative or in the negative.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Committee in its report to state whether the department/minister in question has, or has not, had all due regard to animal welfare. If the Committee is satisfied that they have then it would be unnecessary for the minister to respond to that report. The amendment below is therefore consequential to the amendment to page 2, line 17, in the name of Lord Mancroft.

LORD MOYLAN

23 Page 1, line 16, at end insert “, but such recommendations may only be made after the report referred to in subsection (1) has been published in an academic journal following peer review.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures the academic robustness of the Committee’s work.

LORD HOWARD OF RISING

24 Page 1, line 17, leave out “or implementation”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment rules out policies which were established in the past, or are currently being lawfully implemented, and confines the Committee to consideration of policy in the making.

25 Page 1, line 18, leave out “all”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment probes why “all” is added to intensify normal “due regard”.

26 Page 1, line 19, leave out “adverse”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment allows the Committee to consider positive impact on welfare of other animals, e.g. in control of vermin.

THE EARL OF KINNOULL
LORD TREES
BARONESS DEECH

27 Page 1, line 20, at end insert –

“(4A) Recommendations made by the Committee must respect legislative or administrative provisions and customs relating in particular to religious rites, cultural traditions and regional heritage.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to place a duty on the Committee to have regard to the balancing factors included in the Lisbon Treaty, Article 13 of Title II, to which the UK was a party before Brexit.

THE EARL OF CAITHNESS

28 Page 1, line 20, at end insert –

“(4A) Recommendations under subsection (3) must not be detrimental to –

- (a) nature conservation,
- (b) biosecurity,
- (c) crop protection, and
- (d) human health.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is to ensure that the Committee take into account the consequences of their recommendations for nature conservation, biosecurity, crop protection and human health and thus to help HMG meet its ambitions of the Environment Act 2021 and Agriculture Act 2020.

LORD PEARSON OF RANNOCH

29★ Page 1, line 20, at end insert –

“(4A) The Committee must produce a report about whether any government policy on shooting deer with non-lead bullets might have a more adverse effect on the welfare of deer as sentient beings relative to the shooting of deer with lead bullets.”

LORD HOWARD OF RISING

30 Page 1, line 20, at end insert –

“(4A) The Committee may only produce a report under subsection (1) in relation to future policy under consideration.

(4B) The Committee's remit does not include any power to review or recommend –

- (a) the repeal, or amendment, of any existing law;
- (b) any change in the implementation of any existing law.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment attempts to limit the Committee's remit.

31★ Page 1, line 20, at end insert –

“(4A) The Committee must consult widely before producing any report about whether government policy on electric dog-training collars will affect the welfare of dogs and other sentient beings.”

LORD HOWARD OF RISING

32 Page 2, line 3, leave out subsection (6)

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment probes why this does not cover devolved administrations.

VISCOUNT RIDLEY

33 Leave out Clause 2 and insert –

“Reports of the Committee

- (1) The Committee must submit an annual report to Parliament setting out whether it is satisfied that all due regard has been had to animal welfare, in accordance with the Animal Welfare Strategy.
- (2) The report is to be published and laid before Parliament.
- (3) The report must state in the affirmative or negative whether it is satisfied that each department of state has complied with the Animal Welfare Strategy.
- (4) The Committee may produce interim reports relating to individual departments and policy areas under consideration, at any time, including making recommendations, where it considers it is necessary to ensure compliance with the animal welfare strategy for the purpose set out in section 1(2).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This largely replicates the existing Bill but takes account of the Animal Welfare Strategy, while still allowing the Committee to play a role where it feels that there has been a failure of process in compliance with the Strategy at a stage before a policy decision has been made. This should ensure that, in most instances, by the time a policy is decided that the Committee is satisfied that all due regard to animal welfare has been had.

Clause 3

LORD MARLAND

34 Page 2, line 17, after “2,” insert “where the committee has found the question in section 2(2) to have been answered in the negative,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Minister to respond only where the Committee has found that there was some defect in process that means the Minister may not have had all due regard to the ways in which the policy might have an adverse effect on the welfare of animals as sentient beings.

LORD MOYLAN

- 35 Page 2, line 21, at end insert “in the peer-reviewed academic journal referred to in section 2(3).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment will ensure that the Secretary of State is responding to robust scientific findings.

LORD BENYON

- 36 Page 2, line 21, at end insert –

“(3) The following do not count towards the three months referred to in subsection (2) –

- (a) any day in a period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, and
- (b) any day in a period of four or more days during which both Houses of Parliament are adjourned.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment has the effect that periods when Parliament is dissolved, prorogued or adjourned for 4 or more days do not count towards the period in which the Minister is required to respond to a report by the Committee.

VISCOUNT RIDLEY

- 37 Leave out Clause 3 and insert –

“Response to reports

- (1) The relevant Minister must lay before Parliament a response to the report, where a failure to comply with the Animal Welfare Strategy has been identified.
- (2) The response must be laid before Parliament within a period of three months from the day on which the Committee’s report is published.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This ensures that ministers must explain to Parliament any failure to comply with the Animal Welfare Strategy identified by the Committee. It would also mean, for example, that if the matter was a policy relating to the Department of Health then it would be the Health Secretary who responds.

After Clause 3

BARONESS HAYMAN OF ULLOCK

- 38 Insert the following new Clause –

“Annual reports

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, the Committee must submit to both Houses of Parliament an annual report on the exercise of the Committee’s functions during the year.
- (2) The annual report must include –
 - (a) a statement of the policies within its remit on which the Committee has reported under section 2 during the year;

After Clause 3 - continued

- (b) an overview of the implementation of animal sentience requirements across government;
- (c) a statement of the other activities the Committee has undertaken during the year in the exercise of its functions.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This would require the Animal Sentience Committee to submit an annual report to Parliament.

Clause 5

LORD BENYON
BARONESS HAYMAN OF ULLOCK
BARONESS BAKEWELL OF HARDINGTON MANDEVILLE

39 Page 2, line 32, at end insert –

- “(b) any cephalopod mollusc, and
- (c) any decapod crustacean.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment adds cephalopod molluscs (for example, octopus and squid) and decapod crustaceans (for example, crab and lobster) to the definition of “animal” for the purposes of the Bill.

LORD MANCROFT
LORD MARLAND

40 Page 2, line 32, at end insert –

- “(1A) “Policy” means any proposal or decided course of action by or on behalf of a Minister in the exercise of their statutory or common law powers.
- (1B) Policy does not include the decisions of Ministers not do something, including changing an existing policy or law.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would define what is meant by policy, ensuring it is defined narrowly.

41 Page 2, line 32, at end insert –

- “(1A) Nothing in this Act applies to an animal while it is in its foetal or embryonic form, except in relation to an animal to which sections 1 (protected animals) and 2 (regulated procedures) of the Animals (Scientific Procedures) Act 1986 as amended apply.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This ensures consistency with existing legislation.

LORD MOYLAN
THE EARL OF KINNOULL
LORD TREES
LORD FORSYTH OF DRUMLEAN

42 Page 2, line 33, leave out subsections (2) to (4)

LORD BENYON
BARONESS BAKEWELL OF HARDINGTON MANDEVILLE

43 Page 2, line 35, at end insert “, where they are not already within that meaning”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Lord Benyon’s first amendment to Clause 5.

LORD MANCROFT
LORD MARLAND

44 Page 2, line 36, at end insert –

“(3A) The power under subsection (2) may only be exercised if the Secretary of State is satisfied, on the basis of scientific evidence, that animals of the kind concerned are sentient.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This, as in the Animal Welfare Act 2006, seeks to ensure the power to extend the scope of sentience is soundly based on scientific evidence and does not result from a political motivation or personal preference.

BARONESS MALLALIEU

45 Page 2, line 41, at end insert –

“(6) Nothing in this Act applies in relation to anything which occurs in the normal course of fishing.”

After Clause 5

LORD HOWARD OF RISING

46 Insert the following new Clause –

“Expiry

This Act expires at the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which it is passed.”

Clause 6

THE EARL OF CAITHNESS
BARONESS MEYER

47 Page 3, line 5, at end insert –

“(3A) The Secretary of State must set up an independent committee of experts to report on the possible consequences of this Act.

(3B) The Secretary of State must publish a response to the report by the independent committee.

- (3C) A Minister of the Crown must make arrangements to move a motion for debate on the report of the independent committee and the Government's response to it in each House of Parliament.
- (3D) Regulations under subsection (2) may not be made until the motion in subsection (3C) has been debated in each House of Parliament."
