Clause 3

LORD FOSTER OF BATH

- 1 Page 2, line 13, at end insert –
“(aa) furthering the protection of property, and”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the building safety regulator to exercise its functions with a view to furthering the protection of property, which is intended to promote longer term protections for occupant safety and reducing fire damage and cost.

LORD CRISP
LORD STUNELL
LORD BLUNKETT

2 Page 2, line 33, at end insert –

“(6) In this Part “safety” means the risk of harm arising from the location, construction or operation of buildings which may injure the health and wellbeing of the individual.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The amendment defines “safety” as including health and wellbeing in this part of the Bill. This means that the regulator needs to consider health and wellbeing when it exercises its building functions.

Clause 4

LORD GREENHALGH

3 Page 3, line 5, at end insert –

“(1A) The assistance and encouragement that must be provided under subsection (1) includes, in particular, assistance and encouragement with a view to facilitating securing the safety of disabled people in or about higher-risk buildings in relation to building safety risks as regards those buildings.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that the regulator must in particular provide assistance and encouragement to relevant persons with a view to facilitating their securing the safety of disabled people in or about higher-risk buildings.

4 Page 3, line 9, leave out “or building safety managers”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the amendments in the name of the Minister leaving out Clauses 82 to 86 (which remove provision about building safety managers).

LORD ABERDARE

7 Page 3, line 26, at end insert –

“(c) the possible risks to safety as regards buildings and to the standard of buildings arising from the contractual arrangements relating to the construction and maintenance of buildings, including payment conditions.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment extends the duty of the Building Safety Regulator to include keeping under review the possible safety risks arising from inappropriate contract arrangements (including payment terms such as retentions) leading to poor behaviours such as substitution of sub-standard materials.

LORD STUNELL

BARONESS PINNOCK

8 Page 3, line 26, at end insert –

- “(2) The regulator must within two years of this section coming into force carry out and publish an assessment of the benefits and costs of measures on improving the safety of people in or about buildings relating to –
- (a) fire suppression systems;
  - (b) safety of stairways and ramps;
  - (c) certification of electrical equipment and systems;
  - (d) provision for people with disabilities.
- (3) The regulator’s assessment may –
- (a) make proposals in accordance with section 7(2) for regulations in respect of any of these matters, and
  - (b) identify and give notice of such other matters relating to safety of people in or about buildings that they determine require further examination.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure that major issues of public concern about safety in buildings are addressed in a timely way.

Clause 11

LORD GREENHALGH

9 Page 5, line 18, at end insert –

- “(2A) The regulator must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the committee includes –
- (a) one or more residents of a higher-risk building who are disabled,
  - (b) a body that represents, supports or promotes the interests of any description of disabled people that includes residents of higher-risk buildings, or
  - (c) a member of a body within paragraph (b).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides that the regulator must take all reasonable steps to ensure that a residents' panel includes one or more disabled residents or a body that represents, supports or promotes the interests of disabled residents of higher-risk buildings.

Clause 12

LORD GREENHALGH

10 Page 6, line 15, at end insert –

“(1A) But regulations repealing section 9, 10 or 11 may be made only if the regulator has made a proposal to the Secretary of State for the making of such regulations (as to which see section 7(2)).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides that the power to repeal a Clause about committees may be exercised only pursuant to a proposal by the regulator.

11 Page 6, line 16, leave out “The regulations” and insert “Regulations under this section”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the other amendment of this Clause in the name of the Minister.

Clause 20

12 Page 10, line 36, at end insert –

“(1A) A statement under subsection (1) must, in particular, include information about the regulator's engagement with residents of higher-risk buildings who are disabled.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides that a statement of the regulator's engagement with residents etc must include information about the regulator's engagement with disabled residents.

BARONESS BRINTON
BARONESS GREY-THOMPSON
BARONESS HAYMAN OF ULLOCK

13★ Page 10, line 36, at end insert –

“(1A) A statement under subsection (1) must outline the extent to which accountable persons have engaged with their residents in relation to the accountable person's duty to avoid disability discrimination”.

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require a statement made by the regulator in relation to engagement with residents to outline the extent to which Accountable Persons have engaged with residents in relation to the Accountable Person's duty to avoid disability discrimination (as inserted by the new Clause in the name of Baroness Brinton).

Clause 29

LORD GREENHALGH

14 Page 17, line 6, at end insert—

““disabled”: a person is disabled if the person has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on the person’s ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities;”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment defines “disabled” for the purposes of Part 2.

After Clause 31BARONESS HAYMAN OF ULLOCK
BARONESS PINNOCK15 Insert the following new Clause—“Building safety and local authorities

The Secretary of State may amend the Building Act 1984 so that the duties imposed on the regulator by virtue of section 31 in respect of higher-risk buildings are imposed on local authorities that exercise building control functions in the area in which the building is located, in respect of buildings which are—

- (a) under 18 metres in height, and
- (b) comprise more than one dwelling.”

After Clause 32

LORD FOSTER OF BATH

16 Insert the following new Clause—“Building regulations: property protection

- (1) The Building Act 1984 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 1 (power to make building regulations), after subsection (1)(f) insert—

“(g) furthering the protection of property,”.
- (3) In Schedule 1 (building regulations), in paragraph 8(5A)—
  - (a) after “1(1)(a),” insert “(d), (e) and (g)”;
  - (b) after “flooding” insert “and fire”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause would add “furthering the protection of property” to the list of purposes for which building regulations may be made under the Building Act 1984, and extends the purposes for which persons carrying out works on a building may be required to do things to improve building resilience.

Clause 41

LORD GREENHALGH

17 Page 56, line 27, at end insert –

*“Inspection of local authorities and registered building control approvers58Z7A Inspections

- (1) The regulatory authority may carry out an inspection of a local authority, or a registered building control approver, in relation to their exercise of building control functions.
- (2) The purposes for which an inspection may be carried out include –
  - (a) ascertaining the efficiency and effectiveness of the local authority or registered building control approver in exercising their building control functions;
  - (b) verifying any information provided by the local authority or registered building control approver to the regulatory authority, in connection with their building control functions.”

Member’s explanatory statement*This amendment confers a power on the regulatory authority to inspect local authorities and registered building control approvers, in relation to their building control functions.Clause 47

LORD GREENHALGH

18 Leave out Clause 47

Member’s explanatory statement*This amendment removes provision about insurance cover relating to work to which an initial notice relates.After Clause 47

LORD GREENHALGH

After Clause 74

BARONESS FOX OF BUCKLEY

26★ Insert the following new Clause –

“Review of provisions relating to accountable persons

- (1) By the end of the period of two years beginning with the day on which section 71 comes into force, the Secretary of State must undertake a review of the financial impact of accountable persons on leaseholders in higher-risk buildings.
- (2) The review under subsection (1) may consider any matter appearing to the Secretary of State to be relevant, but must identify and quantify –
  - (a) all costs passed on to leaseholders in relation to any function of any accountable person under Part 4 of this Act; and
  - (b) any other costs passed on to leaseholders by any accountable persons.
- (3) A Minister of the Crown must, as soon as practicable on completion of the review, lay a statement on its findings before Parliament.
- (4) This section comes into force on the day this Act is passed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the government to identify and quantify all costs passed on to leaseholders under the accountable person regime, for example to check if Building Safety Manager costs have been rebadged and passed on.

Clause 79

LORD GREENHALGH

27 Page 94, line 34, leave out paragraph (a)

Member's explanatory statement

LORD GREENHALGH

34 Leave out Clause 86

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment and the amendments leaving out Clauses 82 to 85 in the name of the Minister remove provision about building safety managers.

After Clause 88

BARONESS BRINTON
BARONESS GREY-THOMPSON
BARONESS HAYMAN OF ULLOCK

35★ Insert the following new Clause—

“Duty to avoid disability discrimination

- (1) The steps taken by the accountable person pursuant to section 88 must include specific steps to ensure that no prohibited conduct relating to the protected characteristic of disability occurs that is unlawful contrary to Part 3 of the Equality Act 2010.
- (2) Those steps must include the development of personal emergency evacuation plans for persons with disabilities.
- (3) The Secretary of State must publish guidance in relation to the content of a personal emergency evacuation plan within 6 months of the commencement of this section.
- (4) In any proceedings concerning the steps taken by the accountable person pursuant to this Part of this Act, or Part 3 of the Equality Act 2010, this guidance is admissible as evidence and must be taken into account.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new Clause puts a duty on the accountable person to avoid disability discrimination, which includes the development of personal emergency evacuation plans for persons with disabilities.

After Clause 90

BARONESS FOX OF BUCKLEY

36★ Insert the following new Clause—

“Duty of accountable persons to achieve best value

- (1) In discharging any function under this Act, an accountable person must take all reasonable steps to achieve best financial value.
- (2) By the end of the period of 3 months beginning on the day this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must issue guidance on duty of best financial value.

- (3) In discharging the duty of best financial value, the accountable person must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.
- (4) This section comes into force on the day this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment creates a duty on accountable persons to act in leaseholders’ best financial interests and requires that the government issues guidance to avoid, for example, the Building Safety Manager costs being rebadged and charged to leaseholders as an overly precautionary measure.

Clause 95

LORD GREENHALGH

- 37 Page 105, line 16, leave out “intervals” and insert “times”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the strategy to be reviewed at times prescribed by regulations.

- 38 Page 105, line 17, at end insert –

- “(c) in prescribed circumstances, consult relevant persons and prescribed persons on the strategy and take any representations made on the consultation into account when next reviewing the strategy;
- (d) act in accordance with the strategy.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the principal accountable person to consult on the residents’ engagement strategy, and to act in accordance with the strategy.

THE LORD BISHOP OF ST ALBANS

LORD BLENCATHRA

As an amendment to Amendment 38

- 39★ In paragraph (c), leave out “when next reviewing the strategy” and insert “and change the strategy to reflect the balance of representations made”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the principal accountable person to consult on the strategy and change it to reflect the balance of residents’ views.

As an amendment to Amendment 38

- 40★ After paragraph (c) insert –

- “(ca) where there is no recognised tenants’ association in existence before the coming into force of this section –
- (i) as part of the consultations on the strategy under paragraph (c), ask all relevant persons and prescribed persons whether such an association should be constituted; and

- (ii) if a simple majority of relevant persons and prescribed persons participating in consultation under sub-paragraph (i) agree that there should be a recognised tenants' association, constitute a recognised tenants' association consisting of all relevant persons and prescribed persons and consult with it when making building safety decisions;"

Member's explanatory statement

As part of consultations to develop a residents engagement strategy, the accountable person must consult with residents on whether to create a recognised tenants' association and, where there is a simple majority demand from residents, the accountable person must establish a recognised tenants' association and consult with it when making building safety decisions.

LORD GREENHALGH

- 44 Page 106, line 7, at end insert –
 "(aa) make provision about the preparation, review or revision of a residents' engagement strategy, in cases where there is more than one accountable person for the building;"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment enables regulations to make provision about the making, review or revision of a strategy, in cases where there is more than one accountable person.

- 45 Page 106, line 9, at end insert –
 "(c) make provision about consultations under this section."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment enables regulations to make provision about consultations on a strategy.

Clause 101

BARONESS FOX OF BUCKLEY

46★ Page 110, line 10, leave out “made for” and insert “essential”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment restricts the power to enter people’s homes to cases where it is essential to achieve a building safety purpose.

47★ Page 110, leave out line 34 and insert “essential to achieve a purpose under section 87, 88 or 99;”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes clear that the court must be satisfied that it is necessary to grant entry to people’s homes in order to achieve a building safety purpose except in extreme circumstances, not simply because the accountable person has sent a notice.

Schedule 7

This amendment removes the building safety charge as a separate charge.

81 Page 119, line 26, at end insert –

“(5A) The relevant lease has effect –

- (a) as if the matters for which the service charge is payable under the lease included the taking of building safety measures by or on behalf of a relevant person (insofar as this would not otherwise be the case), and
- (b) where the lease contains different methods for apportioning different relevant costs (within the meaning of section 18), as if it provided for any costs for which the tenant is liable by virtue only of paragraph (a) to be apportioned in the same way as costs incurred in connection with insuring the building.

(5B) “Building safety measure” means any of the following –

- (a) applying for registration of a higher-risk building in accordance with section 77 of the Building Safety Act 2022;
- (b) applying for a building assessment certificate in accordance with section 78 of that Act;
- (c) displaying a building assessment certificate in accordance with section 81 of that Act;
- (d) assessing building safety risks in accordance with section 87 of that Act;
- (e) taking reasonable steps in accordance with section 88 of that Act (management of building safety risks), other than steps involving the carrying out of works as referred to in section 88(2);
- (f) preparing and revising a safety case report in accordance with section 89 of that Act;
- (g) notifying the regulator of a safety case report, and giving a copy of a safety case report to the regulator, in accordance with section 90 of that Act;
- (h) establishing and operating a mandatory occurrence reporting system, and giving information to the regulator, in accordance with section 91 of that Act;
- (i) keeping information and documents in accordance with section 92 of that Act;
- (j) giving information and documents to any person in accordance with section 93, 94 or 96 of that Act;
- (k) complying with any duty under section 95 of that Act (residents' engagement strategy);
- (l) establishing and operating a system for the investigation of complaints in accordance with section 97 of that Act;
- (m) giving a contravention notice to a resident, and making an application to the county court, in accordance with section 100 of that Act;

- (n) making a request to enter premises, or making an application to the county court, in accordance with section 101 of that Act (access to premises).
- (5C) For the purposes of this section any of the following incurred in connection with the taking of a building safety measure are to be regarded as incurred in taking the measure –
  - (a) legal and other professional fees;
  - (b) fees payable to the regulator;
  - (c) management costs.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that the service charge provisions under the lease have effect as if they covered costs incurred or to be incurred in connection with the taking of building safety measures.

““relevant person” means –

- (a) if the landlord is an accountable person for the building, the landlord or a special measures manager for the building;
- (b) otherwise, any superior landlord who is an accountable person for the building or a special measures manager for the building;”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment, which creates a definition of “relevant person”, is consequential on other amendments to this Clause in the name of the Minister.

84 Page 119, line 36, at end insert –

- (8) The regulations may make incidental, transitional or saving provision.
- (9) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (7) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment confers a power to amend the definition of “building safety measure”.

85 Page 119, line 36, at end insert –

“30DA Liability for remuneration of building safety director of resident management company etc

Clause 115 - continued

- (1) This section applies to a lease of premises which consist of or include a dwelling in a higher-risk building if –
- (a) the landlord is an accountable person for the building,
  - (b) the landlord is –
    - (i) a resident management company within the meaning of section (Building safety directors of resident management companies) of the Building Safety Act 2022, or
    - (ii) an RTM company within the meaning of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 (right to manage), and
  - (c) the tenant is liable to pay a service charge.
- (2) The lease has effect –
- (a) as if the matters for which the service charge is payable under the lease included remunerating any director of the landlord appointed for a building safety purpose (insofar as this would not otherwise be the case), and
  - (b) where the lease contains different methods for apportioning different relevant costs (within the meaning of section 18), as if it provided that any costs for which the tenant is liable by virtue only of paragraph (a) to be apportioned in the same way as costs incurred in connection with insuring the building.
- (3) In this section –
- “building safety purpose” means the purpose of supporting the landlord in complying with its duties under Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022 or under regulations made under that Part;
  - “landlord” includes any person who has a right under the lease to enforce payment of a service charge;
  - “service charge” has the meaning given by section 18;
  - “tenant” includes any person who has an obligation under the lease to pay a service charge.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes provision for the recovery from tenants of costs incurred by a residents’ company in remunerating a director of the company, appointed in connection with its building safety duties.

LORD BEST

BARONESS NEVILLE-ROLFE

As an amendment to Amendment 85

86

In subsection (2) before paragraph (a) insert –

- “(za) as if it contained provision authorising the appointment of a person (whether or not a leaseholder or a resident of the building) as a director of the landlord for a building safety purpose,”

Member's explanatory statement

The new clause "Building safety directors of resident management companies" which stands in the name of the Minister ensures that any restrictions in the Articles of Association of a residents management company are disapplied insofar as they conflict with the new power to appoint a professional director to discharge building safety duties. This amendment supplements that amendment by ensuring that any similar restriction imposed by a lease is also disapplied.

“20F Limitation of service charges: excluded costs for higher-risk buildings

- (1) This section applies in relation to a lease to which section 30D (higher-risk buildings: building safety costs) applies.
- (2) Excluded costs are not to be regarded as relevant costs to be taken into account in determining the amount of service charge payable by a tenant under the lease.
- (3) In this section “excluded costs” means any of the following incurred in connection with Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022 or regulations made under that Part—
  - (a) costs incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of a relevant person solely as a result of any penalty imposed or enforcement action taken by the regulator;
  - (b) legal costs incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of a relevant person in connection with special measures order proceedings;
  - (c) costs incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of a relevant person by reason of any negligence, breach of contract or unlawful act on the part of that relevant person or a person acting on their behalf;
  - (d) costs of a description prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State that are incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of an accountable person or special measures manager for the building in connection with the taking of building safety measures.
- (4) In this section—
  - “building safety measures” has the meaning given by section 30D;
  - “enforcement action” means action taken with a view to, or in connection with—

- (a) securing compliance with Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022 or regulations made under that Part, or
  - (b) the imposition of a sanction in respect of a contravention of that Part or those regulations;
- “the regulator” has the meaning given by section 118 of the Building Safety Act 2022;
- “relevant person” means –
- (a) where the landlord under the lease is an accountable person for the higher-risk building, the landlord or a special measures manager for the higher-risk building;
  - (b) where the landlord is not such an accountable person, any superior landlord who is an accountable person for the higher-risk building or a special measures manager for the higher-risk building;
- “special measures order proceedings” means any proceedings relating to the making, variation or discharge of, or the giving of directions in relation to, a special measures order under Schedule 7 to the Building Safety Act 2022 (including any appeals in relation to such proceedings).
- (5) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.
  - (6) A power to make regulations includes power to make –
    - (a) incidental, transitional or saving provision;
    - (b) different provision for different purposes.
  - (7) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”
- (4) In section 21 (service charge information) after subsection (6) insert –
- “(6A) In particular, regulations which make provision about higher-risk buildings (within the meaning of Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022) need not contain provision of a kind mentioned in subsection (2) or (3).”
- (4A) In section 30 (meaning of “landlord” and “tenant”) –
- (a) after the definition of “landlord” insert –
    - ““services” includes, in relation to a dwelling in a higher-risk building (as defined by section 30H), building safety measures within the meaning of section 30D;”;
  - (b) in the heading for ““flat”, “landlord” and “tenant”” substitute ““landlord”, “tenant” etc”.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment applies the existing provisions on service charges to costs incurred in respect of building safety measures, provides that certain costs may not be taken into account in calculating service charges, makes provision about service charge information, and makes provision consequential on other amendments to this Clause in the name of the Minister.

LORD GREENHALGH

121 Insert the following new Clause –

“Section 120: height of buildings and number of storeys

- (1) This section applies for the purpose of section 120.
- (2) The height of a building is to be measured from ground level to the finished surface of the floor of the top storey of the building (ignoring any storey which is a roof-top machinery or plant area or consists exclusively of machinery or plant rooms).
- (3) When determining the number of storeys in a building –
  - (a) any storey below ground level is to be disregarded;
  - (b) any mezzanine floor is to be regarded as a storey if its internal floor area is at least half of the internal floor area of the largest storey in the building which is not below ground level.
- (4) In subsection (2) “ground level”, in relation to a building, means –
  - (a) the level of the surface of the ground immediately adjacent to the building, or
  - (b) where the level of the surface of the ground on which the building is situated is not uniform, the level of the lowest part of the surface of the ground immediately adjacent to it.

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3) a storey is “below ground level” if any part of the finished surface of the ceiling of the storey is below the level of the surface of the ground immediately adjacent to that part of the building.”

“No service charge payable if landlord meets contribution condition

- 3A(1) No service charge is payable under a qualifying lease in respect of a relevant measure relating to any relevant defect if the landlord under the lease at the qualifying time (“the relevant landlord”) met the contribution condition.
- (2) The contribution condition is that the landlord group’s net worth at the qualifying time was more than  $N \times \text{£}2,000,000$ , where  $N$  is the number of relevant buildings within sub-paragraph (3).
- (3) A relevant building is within this sub-paragraph if a member of the landlord group was, at the qualifying time, a landlord under a lease of the relevant building or any part of it.
- (4) For the purposes of this paragraph –
- (a) “the landlord group” means the relevant landlord and any person associated with the relevant landlord;
  - (b) the net worth of the landlord group at the qualifying time is to be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the amount for the time being specified in sub-paragraph (2).
- (6) This paragraph does not apply if, at the qualifying time, the relevant landlord was –
- (a) a private registered provider of social housing (as to which see section 80 of the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008),
  - (b) a local authority (as defined by section 29), or
  - (c) a prescribed person.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides that no service charge is payable under a qualifying lease in respect of a relevant measure relating to any relevant defect if the landlord met the condition mentioned in the paragraph (relating to net worth).

LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM
LORD BLENCATHRA
As an amendment to Amendment 152

- 153 In sub-paragraph (4)(a), at end insert “, or
(ii) where the relevant landlord is a trustee holding a legal or equitable interest in a relevant building on behalf of any third party who is not a tenant under a qualifying lease, the relevant landlord, any person associated with the relevant landlord, any such third parties and any persons associated with any such third parties;”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure the assets of third-party investors who hold interests in relevant buildings through trust structures are caught by the leaseholder protection provisions.

LORD GREENHALGH

- 154 Page 226, line 23, leave out from “if” to end of line 28 and insert “the value of the qualifying lease at the qualifying time was less than—
(a) £325,000, if the premises demised by the qualifying lease are in Greater London;
(b) £175,000, in any other case.
(2) For the purposes of this paragraph the value of a qualifying lease at the qualifying time is its value determined in accordance with paragraph 6 and regulations made under it.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that no service charge is payable under a qualifying lease in respect of a relevant measure relating to any relevant defect if the value of the lease at the qualifying time is less than the amount mentioned in the amendment.

BARONESS HAYMAN OF ULLOCK

- 155 Page 227, line 14, leave out from “is” to end of line 17 and insert “zero”

- “(6A) The regulations may in particular provide that, except in prescribed cases, the value of a qualifying lease at the qualifying time is to be determined by –
- (a) ascertaining the consideration given on the latest disposal of the qualifying lease on the open market to have been made before that time, and
  - (b) if that disposal occurred before 2022, uprating the consideration in accordance with the regulations.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment mentions the kind of provision that may be made by regulations under paragraph 6(6).

LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM

LORD BLENCATHRA

As an amendment to Amendment 164

165 Leave out paragraphs (a) and (b) and insert “the consideration given on the most recent disposal of the qualifying lease.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires that value for the purposes of leaseholder contributions is determined as the most recent sale price, ignoring inflation, to avoid properties being ascribed an artificially high value not possible in the open market.

LORD GREENHALGH

166 Page 227, line 34, leave out sub-paragraph (1) and insert –

- “(1) A relevant service charge which would otherwise be payable under a qualifying lease is payable only if (and so far as) the sum of –
- (a) the amount of the service charge, and
  - (b) the total amount of relevant service charges which fell due in the period of 12 months ending with the day on which the service charge fell due,
- does not exceed one tenth of the permitted maximum.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment removes the existing power to make regulations, and provides that a service charge in respect of a relevant measure is payable only so far as the total of such service charges in any 12 month period does not exceed one tenth of the permitted maximum.

167 Page 227, line 39, at end insert –

““relevant service charge” means a service charge under a qualifying lease in respect of a relevant measure relating to any relevant defect.”

177 Page 229, line 21, at end insert –

“Presumption: qualifying lease

- 12A (1) This paragraph applies in relation to a lease that meets the conditions in paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 121(2).
- (2) The lease is to be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as a qualifying lease unless –
- (a) the landlord under the lease has taken all reasonable steps (and any prescribed steps) to obtain a qualifying lease certificate from a tenant under the lease, and
  - (b) no such certificate has been provided to the landlord.
- (3) In this paragraph “qualifying lease certificate” means a certificate, complying with any prescribed requirements, that the condition in section 121(2)(d) was met in relation to the lease at the qualifying time.
- (4) The requirements that may be prescribed include requirements as to –
- (a) the information to be provided in the certificate,
  - (b) the form of the certificate, and
  - (c) the execution of the certificate.

Presumptions relating to landlord under qualifying lease

- 12B (1) The person who was the landlord under a qualifying lease at the qualifying time (“the relevant landlord”) is to be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as having met the contribution condition (as defined by paragraph 3A) unless the landlord under the lease provides to the tenant under the lease a certificate, complying with any prescribed requirements, that the relevant landlord did not meet that condition.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that (in some or all cases) the condition in paragraph 2(1) is to be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as met in relation to a lease to which paragraph 2 applies unless the landlord under the lease provides to the tenant under the lease a certificate that complies with any prescribed requirements.
- (3) The requirements that may be prescribed include requirements as to –
- (a) the information to be provided in the certificate,
  - (b) the form of the certificate, and
  - (c) the execution of the certificate.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides that certain leases are taken to be qualifying leases unless steps are taken without the tenant providing a certificate, and landlords are taken to have met the contribution condition, or the condition in paragraph 2, unless they provide a certificate.

178 Page 229, line 28, leave out sub-paragraph (3)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the amendment in the name of the Minister at page 225, line 10 inserting a definition of "prescribed".

179 Page 229, line 28, at end insert –

"Information from landlords

- 13A (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring a relevant landlord to give prescribed information or documents to a relevant tenant or other prescribed person.
- (2) Information or documents may be prescribed if they relate to any matter with which this Schedule is concerned.
  - (3) The regulations may require the information or documents to be given in a prescribed way.
  - (4) The regulations may provide that where a relevant landlord fails to comply with the regulations, prescribed costs –
    - (a) are not to be regarded as relevant costs to be taken into account in determining the amount of a service charge payable under a relevant lease, and
    - (b) must not be met from a relevant reserve fund.
  - (5) The regulations may make provision for and in connection with an application to the First-tier Tribunal for an order –
    - (a) determining whether a relevant landlord has failed to comply with the regulations, and
    - (b) if so, requiring the relevant landlord to provide specified information or documents to a specified person by a specified time.

"Specified" here means specified in the order.

- (6) Nothing in sub-paragraph (5) limits the effect of regulations made by virtue of sub-paragraph (4).
- (7) Information or documents may be specified in an order under sub-paragraph (5) only if the regulations require them to be provided to the specified person.
- (8) In this paragraph –
  - "relevant costs" has the meaning given by section 18 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (and this applies in relation to a lease of premises that does not include a dwelling as it applies in relation to a lease of a dwelling);
  - "relevant landlord" means a landlord under a relevant lease;
  - "relevant lease" means a lease of premises in a relevant building;
  - "relevant reserve fund" has the meaning given by paragraph 10;
  - "relevant tenant" means a tenant under a relevant lease."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment confers a power to make regulations, requiring landlords to provide certain information and documents, and also enabling an application to be made to the First-tier Tribunal about the provision of information and documents.

180 Page 229, line 28, at end insert –

“13B In section 21 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (service charge information), in subsection (6A) (inserted by section 115), after “2022)” insert “or relevant buildings (as defined by section 120 of that Act).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides that regulations under section 21 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (service charge information) need not make the provision mentioned in subsection (2) or (3) of that section in relation to relevant buildings.

BARONESS PINNOCK
 LORD STUNELL

- 200★ Insert the following new Clause –
“Leaseholder protection fund
 (1) Within six months of the day on which this section comes into force the Secretary of State must establish a fund to reimburse leaseholders for payment of fire safety remediation works.
 (2) The fund must refund any money paid by a leaseholder for fire safety remediation works.
 (3) The fund must consist of money collected by virtue of the levy under section 57 of this Act.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to use funds raised by the levy on applications for building control approval etc to refund leaseholders who have paid money for remediation within the cap.

THE EARL OF LYTTON

- 201★ Insert the following new Clause –
“Crown liability for disclaimed properties
 (1) If the freehold of a building with relevant defects is disclaimed under section 178 or 315 of the Insolvency Act 1986, the Crown is subject to the liabilities of the freeholder.

After Clause 127 - continued

- (2) Section 1013 of the Companies Act 2006 does not apply in respect of buildings with relevant defects.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause provides for the Crown to step into the shoes of the freeholder where properties escheat and prevents it from disclaiming properties received through bona vacantia.

- 202★ Insert the following new Clause—

“Limitation on disclaimers of leaseholds

Sections 179 and 315 of the Insolvency Act 1986 do not apply in respect of leases of relevant building with relevant defects.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause prevents liquidators and trustees in bankruptcy from disclaiming the leases of buildings with fire safety defects.

This amendment provides that scheme membership conditions are to be contained in regulations.

206 Page 132, line 36, leave out subsections (3) and (4) and insert –

“(3) The membership conditions that may be prescribed include in particular conditions relating to –

- (a) the remedying of defects in buildings with which an eligible person has a connection of a prescribed kind;
- (b) the making of financial contributions towards meeting costs associated with remedying defects in buildings (including buildings with which an eligible person has no connection);
- (c) the use (or use in prescribed cases) of construction products (or construction products of a prescribed description) of prescribed persons carrying out activities in relation to construction products;
- (d) the provision of information to the Secretary of State or any other person;
- (e) the competence or conduct of any individual connected with an eligible person (for example, any director or senior manager of an eligible person) or any person with whom an eligible person contracts;
- (f) whether persons with whom an eligible person contracts are members of a scheme.

In paragraph (e) “conduct” includes conduct occurring before the coming into force of this section.

(4) The descriptions of persons prescribed by virtue of subsection (3)(c) may in particular be prescribed by reference to –

- (a) being eligible to be members of a scheme and not being members of that scheme;
- (b) their conduct in relation to remedying defects in buildings or contributing to costs associated with remedying defects in buildings.

(4A) The membership conditions that may be prescribed by virtue of subsection (3)(c) include in particular a condition requiring an eligible person to ensure that no prescribed product of prescribed persons carrying out activities in relation to construction products is used in prescribed cases.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment sets out various matters that may, in particular, be the subject of membership conditions for a scheme established under this Clause.

207 Page 133, line 6, at end insert –

228 Insert the following new Clause –

“Order for information in connection with building liability order

- (1) A person of a prescribed description may apply to the High Court for an information order.
- (2) An “information order” is an order requiring a specified body corporate to give, by a specified time, specified information or documents relating to persons who are or have at any time in a specified period been, associates of the body corporate.
- (3) An information order may be made only if it appears to the court –
  - (a) that the body corporate is subject to a relevant liability (within the meaning of section 132), and
  - (b) that it is appropriate to require the information or documents to be provided for the purpose of enabling the applicant (or the applicant and others) to make, or consider whether to make, an application for a building liability order.
- (4) In this section –

“associate” has the meaning given by section 133;

After Clause 133 - continued

“building liability order”: see section 132;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State;

“specified” means specified in the information order.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause provides that a person prescribed by regulations may make an application to the High Court for an order requiring a body corporate to give information relating to persons who are associates of the body corporate and sets out when the High Court may make the order.

THE EARL OF LYTTON

229★ Insert the following new Clause –

“Government grants: remediation works

In the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985, after section 20E (as inserted by section 134) insert –

“20F Government grants: remediation works

- (1) Where an offer of grant to cover the costs of remediation works has been made, the landlord must accept it within two months of the initial offer.
- (2) If a landlord fails to accept a grant within the two-month period, any costs that would have been covered by a grant may not be regarded as being a relevant cost for the purpose of determining the amount of any service charge payable by a leaseholder.””

BARONESS PINNOCK
LORD STUNELL

232 Insert the following new Clause—

“Fire safety defects: prohibition on raising charges

A landlord or freeholder may not increase any ground rent or service charge in order to rectify defects relating to fire safety.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This is a probing amendment to clarify what (if any) charges landlords and freeholders can pass to leaseholders by increasing ground rent or service charges to pay for fire safety defects.

LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM
LORD BLENCATHRA

233 Insert the following new Clause—

“Duty of local authorities to pursue responsible developers

- (1) It is the duty of every local authority to compile a list of all relevant buildings in the area for which it is responsible.
- (2) The local authority must compile the list under subsection (1) by the end of the period of 3 months beginning on the day this section comes into force.
- (3) It is the duty of the local authority to undertake all necessary remedial works to a relevant building if there is no remediation order in relation to that building and—
  - (a) the relevant building is on the local authority’s list compiled under subsection (1),
  - (b) the relevant landlord has failed to start remedial works within the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force,
  - (c) any person with a legal or equitable interest in the relevant building, excluding the landlord, requests in writing that the local authority undertakes remedial work, and
  - (d) the local authority is reasonably satisfied that the building requires remedial work.
- (4) The Secretary of State may, on giving written notice to the local authority, act in place of the local authority in discharging the duty under this section.

- (5) Where a local authority or the Secretary of State undertakes any remedial works under this section, the local authority or the Secretary of State is deemed to be –
  - (a) a person to whom a duty is owed under section 1 of the Defective Premises Act 1972;
  - (b) a person with a relevant interest for the prescribed purposes.
- (6) The “prescribed purposes” under this section are –
  - (a) a claim for damages under section (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products), or
  - (b) a claim for damages under section (Liability relating to construction products).
- (7) Where a local authority or the Secretary of State expends any money on remedial works for the purposes of this section, it has a claim enforceable as a debt against the developer of the relevant building.
- (8) Where the local authority is not able to recover any money from any third party in respect of works performed under subsection (3), it is the duty of the Secretary of State to reimburse the local authority.
- (9) By the end of the period of one month beginning with the day this section comes into force, the Secretary of State must make regulations providing for –
  - (a) the local authority, or Secretary of State, to have rights of access to any relevant building to undertake any necessary remedial works under this section, and
  - (b) the landlord of the relevant building to provide any information the local authority, or the Secretary of State, requires to undertake any necessary remedial works under this section.
- (10) For the purposes of this section –
  - “developer” has the same meaning as in section 139;
  - “local authority” has the same meaning as in section 29;
  - “relevant defects” has the same meaning as in section 122;
  - “remedial works” means any work in relation to relevant defects.
- (11) This section comes into force on the day this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment places a duty on local authorities, or the Secretary of State, to undertake remedial works where there is no Building Remediation Order in place and the landlord has not carried out works.

THE EARL OF LYTTON

234★

Insert the following new Clause –

“Building safety cost orders

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision for the Building Safety Cost Panel to make building safety cost orders on the application of an interested person.

- (2) A “building safety cost order” under this section is an order requiring a specified body corporate to make payments to a specified person, for the purpose of meeting costs incurred or to be incurred in remedying relevant defects (or specified relevant defects) relating to a relevant building.
- (3) An order may –
  - (a) require the making of payments of a specified amount, or payments of a reasonable amount in respect of the remediation of specified relevant defects (or in respect of specified things done or to be done for the purpose of remedying relevant defects);
  - (b) require a payment to be made at a specified time, or to be made on demand following the occurrence of a specified event;
  - (c) provide for payment in services or money’s worth.
- (4) The regulations must make provision for the Building Safety Cost Panel to issue a warning notice to a person before determining whether to make a building safety cost order under this section against that person.
- (5) The regulations must make provision requiring that a building safety cost order under this section –
  - (a) be made in a prescribed form;
  - (b) contain prescribed information.
- (6) The regulations may make provision about service of a building safety cost order under this section including –
  - (a) how an order is to be served;
  - (b) when an order is to be taken as having been served;
  - (c) the persons on whom an order must be served.
- (7) The regulations must make provision in relation to –
  - (a) enforcement of a building safety cost order made under this section (including enforcement by the Secretary of State or the tribunal);
  - (b) powers of the Secretary of State to order a person served with a building safety cost order to pay any costs incurred by the Secretary of State under section (Building safety cost order: determinations) in respect of a building safety cost order under this section.
- (8) The regulations may make provision for persons to apply to the Secretary of State for a review of a building safety cost order under this section.
- (9) The regulations must make provision for appeals to the tribunal in relation to –
  - (a) a decision of the Building Safety Cost Panel to make or not make a building safety cost order under this section;
  - (b) a refusal by the Building Safety Cost Panel to review a building safety cost order under this section;
  - (c) the outcome of a review by the Building Safety Cost Panel of a building safety cost order under this section.
- (10) The regulations may in particular include provision suspending a requirement to pay an amount due under a building safety cost order under this section pending the determination of a review.

- (11) The Secretary of State must make regulations under this section within a period of three months beginning with the day this section comes into force.
- (12) In this section—
- “associated”: see section 123;
- “interested person”, in relation to a relevant building, means—
- (a) the regulator (as defined by section 2),
  - (b) a local authority (as defined by section 29) for the area in which the relevant building is situated,
  - (c) a fire and rescue authority (as defined by section 29) for the area in which the relevant building is situated, or
  - (d) a person with a legal or equitable interest in the relevant building or any part of it;
- “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations under this section;
- “relevant building” means a building consisting of or containing one or more dwellings;
- “relevant defect”: see section 122;
- “specified” means specified in the order.
- (13) This section comes into force on the day this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause confers a regulation-making power for the Secretary of State to provide for making of building safety cost orders by the Building Safety Cost Panel.

235★

Insert the following new Clause—

“Building safety cost orders: determinations

- (1) For the purposes of section (Building safety cost orders), the Secretary of State must by regulations make provision for the Secretary of State to appoint persons to the Building Safety Cost Panel to determine on behalf of the Secretary of State—
  - (a) whether relevant defects were caused by defective construction or additional building work;
  - (b) the works required to remediate relevant defects;
  - (c) the costs that a person has reasonably incurred or is likely to reasonably incur in respect of works referred to in paragraph (b);
  - (d) the amount that a person or persons should be required to pay under a building safety cost order.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) “defective construction or additional building work” means construction or additional building work that—
  - (a) contravened building regulations or other enactments in force at the time of the construction, or
  - (b) satisfies any other criteria specified by the Secretary of State in regulations.

- (3) The regulations must include provision about the composition of the Building Safety Cost Panel and the criteria to be met by a person before they may be appointed to the Building Safety Cost Panel.
- (4) The regulations must make provision about determinations including provision –
  - (a) conferring power on the Building Safety Cost Panel to require that persons provide such information as the assessor may reasonably require for the purposes of a determination;
  - (b) for the provision of information by the Building Safety Cost Panel to the Secretary of State (including any information provided under paragraph (a));
  - (c) specifying the criteria to be applied by the Building Safety Cost Panel in determining whether relevant defects were caused by defective construction or additional building work (and the criteria may, in particular, make provision wholly or partly by reference to building regulations or other enactments in force at the time of construction or by reference to specified classes of document);
  - (d) permitting the Building Safety Cost Panel to operate a rebuttable presumption of defective construction where specified classes of fact have been proved (for which purpose the regulations may make provision similar to, or applying with or without modification, any enactment);
  - (e) requiring the maintenance and publication of records of applications and determinations.
- (5) Regulations under section (4)(a) may include provision for criminal offences relating to a failure to provide information, or to the provision of false or misleading information.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (4)(a) creating a criminal offence must have the effect that –
  - (a) the offence is –
    - (i) triable summarily only, or
    - (ii) triable summarily or on indictment,
  - (b) the offence is punishable only –
    - (i) with a fine, or
    - (ii) with a term of imprisonment or a fine (or both),
  - (c) where the offence is triable summarily only, any fine with which the offence is punishable in Scotland or Northern Ireland does not exceed level 5 on the standard scale,
  - (d) where the offence is triable summarily or on indictment, any fine with which the offence is punishable on summary conviction in Scotland or Northern Ireland does not exceed the statutory maximum, and
  - (e) any term of imprisonment with which the offence is punishable on summary conviction does not exceed –
    - (i) in England and Wales, the relevant period,
    - (ii) in Scotland, 12 months, and
    - (iii) in Northern Ireland, 6 months.

After Clause 136 - continued

- (7) In subsection (6)(e)(i), “the relevant period” means –
- (a) in relation to an offence that is triable summarily only –
    - (i) where the offence is committed before the coming into force of section 281 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, 6 months, and
    - (ii) where the offence is committed after that time, 51 weeks;
  - (b) in relation to an offence that is triable summarily or on indictment –
    - (i) where the offence is committed before the coming into force of paragraph 24(2) of Schedule 22 to the Sentencing Act 2020, 6 months, and
    - (ii) where the offence is committed after that time, 12 months.
- (8) Regulations under subsection (4)(b) may make provision for the purpose of securing that there is (taking into account any power or duty to provide information under the regulations) no contravention of the data protection legislation.
- (9) The Secretary of State must make regulations under this section within a period of three months beginning with the day this section comes into force.
- (10) In subsection (8), “data protection legislation” has the same meaning as in the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3 of that Act).
- (11) This section comes into force on the day this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause confers a regulation-making power relating to determinations for the purposes of building safety cost orders.

236★

Insert the following new Clause –

“Building safety cost order: liability

- (1) This section has effect for the purpose of determining liability for the costs of remedying relevant defects and relevant measures taken in relation to relevant defects.
- (2) Where it is determined that the relevant defects were caused by defective construction or additional building work, the following are liable for the costs of remedying them and relevant measures taken in relation to relevant defects –
  - (a) the developer of the building (or, where there is more than one developer, the developers together), and
  - (b) if the conditions set out in section (Costs contribution orders made by the Secretary of State) are met, the defaulter.
- (3) If two or more persons are liable by virtue of subsection (2) for the same defective construction or additional building work, their liability is joint and several.
- (4) If no person described in subsection (2) can be found, landlords are liable if the relevant lease implied that the building would be built to building regulations or other enactments in force at the time of the construction.
- (5) If no person described in subsections (2) and (4) can be found, the Building Safety Cost Fund is liable.

- (6) Where it is determined that the relevant defects were not caused by defective construction or additional building work, the Building Safety Cost Fund is liable.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause sets out the way in which liability for remediation costs is to be determined.

237★

Insert the following new Clause –

“Building Safety Cost Fund

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision for and in connection with the Building Safety Cost Fund through the imposition of a levy on the construction industry in general, or specified parts of the construction industry, for the purpose of making grants to cover the costs of remedying relevant defects and relevant measures taken in relation to relevant defects where no other person can be found, and the costs of administering the Building Safety Cost Panel.
- (2) The levy is payable to the Secretary of State or a person designated by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The regulations must in particular make provision about –
  - (a) the amount of the levy (and may provide for different amounts of levy to be paid by different classes of person);
  - (b) the person by whom it must be paid;
  - (c) when the levy must be paid;
  - (d) the provision of information or documents to, or by, the Secretary of State or designated person;
  - (e) the consequences of a failure to pay the levy in accordance with the regulations;
  - (f) the determination of disputes (including provision conferring a right to appeal to the tribunal and provision about appeals).
- (4) In making regulations under subsection (3), and in particular in assessing the proportionality and other fairness of any levy imposed by regulations under subsection (3), the Secretary of State must –
  - (a) have regard to any other levy or similar imposition that appears to have a similar purpose as a levy under the scheme funding regulations, and
  - (b) must consult persons appearing to him or her to represent the interests of persons affected by other relevant levies and impositions.
- (5) The regulations must provide for any amount received by a designated person by way of a levy to be paid to the Secretary of State, subject to retention of an amount, determined by or in accordance with the regulations, in respect of the costs of administering the levy.
- (6) The Secretary of State must make regulations under this section within the period of three months beginning with the day this section comes force.
- (7) This section comes into force on the day this Act is passed.”

After Clause 144

LORD GREENHALGH

- 243 Insert the following new Clause –

“New build home warranties

- (1) This section applies where a person (“the developer”) carries out a development in England that results in the creation of one or more dwellings (“new build homes”).
- (2) The developer must, at the time of or before granting or disposing of a relevant interest in a new build home –

- (a) provide to the purchaser a new build home warranty for the new build home, and
  - (b) provide to a prescribed person a new build home warranty for any common parts.
- (3) A “new build home warranty” for a thing is an arrangement, satisfying any requirements under subsection (4), under which—
- (a) the developer agrees, in specified circumstances, to remedy any specified defect (or any defect) in the thing occurring in a specified period, and
  - (b) a prescribed person obtains the benefit of a policy of insurance relating to specified defects (or any defects) in the thing.

“Specified” here means specified in the arrangement.

- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations impose requirements about new build home warranties, including in particular requirements as to—
- (a) the kinds of defect which the developer must agree to remedy;
  - (b) the circumstances in which the developer must agree to remedy a defect (including the minimum duration of the period mentioned in subsection (3)(a));
  - (c) the developer agreeing to meet prescribed costs incurred by a person occupying a new build home, where works to remedy a defect are carried out;
  - (d) the policy of insurance (including risks that must be covered, the minimum amount of cover, the minimum duration of the period of cover, and the maximum amount of any excess);
  - (e) the solvency of the insurer or underwriter;
  - (f) the standard of service provided by or on behalf of the insurer in relation to the policy;
  - (g) the ability of a person who has the benefit of the warranty to transfer that benefit to another person.
- (5) The regulations must provide that the period of cover under the policy of insurance must be at least 15 years beginning with the day on which the relevant interest is granted or disposed of.
- (6) In this section—
- “carries out a development”: the reference to a person carrying out a development is to undertaking or commissioning—
- (a) the construction of a building, or
  - (b) the conversion of, or carrying out of any other works to, a building,
- with a view to granting, or disposing of, relevant interests in one or more dwellings created as a result of the construction, conversion or carrying out of works;
- “common parts”, in relation to a new build home, means any part of a building, where—

(a) that part is provided for the use, benefit and enjoyment of the residents of the new build home and the residents of other dwellings (whether alone or with other persons), and

(b) the right to use that part is conferred in connection with the grant or disposal of the relevant interest in the new build home;

“defect”: any reference to a defect includes, in relation to land, contamination;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State;

“purchaser” means the person to whom the relevant interest is granted or disposed of;

“relevant interest” means a legal estate which is –

(a) an estate in fee simple absolute in possession, or

(b) a term of years absolute granted for a term of more than 21 years from the date of the grant.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause imposes, on a developer of new build homes, a requirement to provide a “new build home warranty” complying with the requirements imposed under the clause.

244

Insert the following new Clause –

“New build home warranties: financial penalties

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for and in connection with the imposition of a financial penalty in cases where the Secretary of State, or a person designated by the Secretary of State, is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that a person has, without reasonable excuse, failed to comply with section (New build home warranties)(2).
- (2) The regulations may include provision –
  - (a) about the procedure to be followed in imposing penalties;
  - (b) about the amount of penalties;
  - (c) for the imposition of interest or additional penalties for late payment;
  - (d) conferring rights of appeal against penalties.
- (3) The regulations must provide that the amount of a financial penalty (excluding interest or any additional penalty) may not exceed the greater of –
  - (a) 10% of the value of the relevant interest at the time the person granted or disposed of the relevant interest, and
  - (b) £10,000.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause confers power to impose a financial penalty for breach of the duty to provide a “new build home warranty”.

After Clause 145

LORD GREENHALGH

245 Insert the following new Clause—

“Liability relating to construction products

Liability relating to construction products: general definitions

In this section, section (Liability relating to construction products) and (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products)—

“the 1991 Regulations” means the Construction Products Regulations 1991 (S.I. 1991/1620);

“the 2011 Regulation” means Regulation (EU) No. 305/2011 (regulation laying down harmonised conditions for the marketing of construction products);

“the 2019 Regulations” means the Construction Products (Amendment etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 (S.I. 2019/465);

“construction products regulations” means regulations under paragraph 1 of Schedule 12;

“construction product requirement” means a requirement under—

- (a) construction products regulations,
- (b) the 2011 Regulation, or
- (c) the 2019 Regulations;

“relevant building” means—

- (a) a building which consists of a dwelling, or
- (b) a building which contains two or more dwellings;

“relevant interest”, in relation to a building in England and Wales, means—

- (a) in a case where the building consists of a dwelling, a legal or equitable interest in the building, and
- (b) in a case where the building contains one or more dwellings, a legal or equitable interest in—
  - (i) the building, or
  - (ii) any dwelling contained in the building;

“relevant interest”, in relation to a building in Scotland, means—

- (a) in a case where the building consists of a dwelling, any right or interest (including a servitude or heritable security) in or over the building, and
- (b) in a case where the building contains one or more dwellings, any right or interest (including a servitude or heritable security) in or over—
  - (i) the building, or
  - (ii) any dwelling contained in the building;

“requirement” includes a prohibition or restriction.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause contains definitions relevant to the next two new Clauses tabled by the Minister.

246 Insert the following new Clause—

“Liability relating to construction products

- (1) This section applies where Conditions A to D are met.
- (2) Condition A is that, at any time after the coming into force of this section—
  - (a) a person fails to comply with a construction product requirement in relation to a construction product,
  - (b) a person who markets or supplies a construction product makes a misleading statement in relation to it, or
  - (c) a person manufactures a construction product that is inherently defective.
- (3) Condition B is that, after Condition A is met, the construction product referred to in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) is installed in, or applied or attached to, a relevant building in the course of works carried out in the construction of, or otherwise in relation to, the building.
- (4) Condition C is that, when those works are completed—
  - (a) in a case where the relevant building consists of a dwelling, the building is unfit for habitation, or
  - (b) in a case where the relevant building contains one or more dwellings, a dwelling contained in the building is unfit for habitation.
- (5) Condition D is that the facts referred to in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) were the cause, or one of the causes, of the building or dwelling being unfit for habitation.
- (6) The person referred to in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) is liable to pay damages to a person with a relevant interest in relation to the relevant building for personal injury, damage to property or economic loss suffered by that person as a result of the facts referred to in subsection (4)(a) or (b).
- (7) A term of an agreement which purports to exclude or restrict, or has the effect of excluding or restricting, any liability arising under this section is void.
- (8) For the purposes of section 10B(1) of the Limitation Act 1980 and section 18ZD(1) of the Prescription and Limitation (Scotland) Act 1973, the right of action that a person has by virtue of this section is to be regarded as having accrued—
  - (a) in a case where the works referred to in subsection (3) are carried out in the construction of the relevant building, when the construction is completed, and
  - (b) in any other case, when the works are completed.
- (9) In subsection (2)(a), “construction product”—
  - (a) in relation to a construction product requirement under construction products regulations, has the meaning specified in those regulations;
  - (b) in relation to a construction product requirement under the 2011 Regulation, has the meaning specified in the 2011 Regulation;
  - (c) in relation to a construction product requirement under the 2019 Regulations, has the meaning specified in the 2011 Regulation as it had effect immediately before IP completion day.
- (10) In subsection (2)(b) and (c) “construction product” has the meaning specified in the 2011 Regulation.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new Clause makes provision for a new right of action where breach of regulations relating to construction products causes, or is a factor in, a building or dwelling becoming unfit for habitation.

247 Insert the following new Clause—

“Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products

- (1) This section applies where Conditions A to D are met.
- (2) Condition A is that, at any time before the coming into force of this section—
  - (a) a person fails to comply with a cladding product requirement in relation to a cladding product,
  - (b) a person who markets or supplies a cladding product makes a misleading statement in relation to it, or
  - (c) a person manufactures a cladding product that is inherently defective.
- (3) Condition B is that, after Condition A has been met, the cladding product is attached to, or included in, the external wall of a relevant building in the course of works carried out in the construction of, or otherwise in relation to, the building.
- (4) Condition C is that, when those works are completed—
  - (a) in a case where the relevant building consists of a dwelling, the building is unfit for habitation, or
  - (b) in a case where the relevant building contains one or more dwellings, a dwelling contained in the building is unfit for habitation.
- (5) Condition D is that the facts referred to in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) were the cause, or one of the causes, of the building or dwelling being unfit for habitation.
- (6) The person referred to in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) is liable to pay damages to a person with a relevant interest in relation to the relevant building for personal injury, damage to property or economic loss suffered by that person as a result of the facts referred to in subsection (4)(a) or (b).
- (7) A term of an agreement which purports to exclude or restrict, or has the effect of excluding or restricting, any liability arising under this section is void.
- (8) For the purposes of section 10B(2) of the Limitation Act 1980 and section 18ZD(2) of the Prescription and Limitation (Scotland) Act 1973, the right of action that a person has by virtue of this section is to be regarded as having accrued—
  - (a) in a case where the works referred to in subsection (3) are carried out in the construction of the relevant building, when the construction is completed, and
  - (b) in any other case, when the works are completed.
- (9) Where an action is brought under this section in England and Wales that, but for section 10B(2) of the Limitation Act 1980, would have been barred by that Act, a court hearing the action must dismiss it in relation to any defendant if satisfied that it is necessary to do so to avoid a breach of that defendant's Convention rights.

- (10) Where an action is brought under this section in Scotland that, but for section 18ZD(2) of the Prescription and Limitation (Scotland) Act 1973, would have been barred by that Act, a court hearing the action must dismiss it in relation to any defender if satisfied that it is necessary to do so to avoid a breach of that defender's Convention rights.
- (11) In this section "cladding product requirement" means –
- (a) in relation to a time before IP completion day, a requirement relating to a cladding product under –
    - (i) the 1991 Regulations, or
    - (ii) the 2011 Regulation as it had effect in EU law at that time, and
  - (b) in relation to a time after IP completion day, a requirement relating to a cladding product under –
    - (i) the 2011 Regulation, or
    - (ii) the 2019 Regulations.
- (12) In this section –
- "cladding product" means a cladding system or any component of a cladding system;
  - "Convention rights" has the same meaning as in the Human Rights Act 1998;
  - "external wall", in relation to a building, includes any part of a roof pitched at an angle of more than 70 degrees to the horizontal if that part of the roof adjoins a space within the building to which persons have access otherwise than for the purpose of carrying out repairs or maintenance."

Member's explanatory statement

This new Clause provides for a right of action where historic defaults relating to cladding cause, or are a factor in, a building or dwelling becoming unfit for habitation.

248

Insert the following new Clause –

"Liability relating to construction products: limitation in England and Wales

In the Limitation Act 1980, after section 10A insert –

"10B Special time limit for actions relating to construction products

- (1) An action under section (Liability relating to construction products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 shall not be brought after the expiration of 15 years from the date on which the right of action accrued.
- (2) An action under section (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 shall not be brought after –
  - (a) if the right of action accrued before the commencement date, the expiration of the period of 30 years from the date on which it accrued, and
  - (b) if the right of action accrued on or after the commencement date, the expiration of the period of 15 years beginning with the date on which it accrued.
- (3) In a case where –

- (a) a right of action under section (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 accrued before the commencement date, and
  - (b) the expiration of the period of 30 years beginning with the date on which the right of action accrued falls in the year beginning with the commencement date,
- subsection (2)(a) has effect as if it referred to the expiration of that year.
- (4) In subsections (2) and (3) “the commencement date” is the day on which section (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 came into force.
  - (5) No other period of limitation prescribed by Part 1 of this Act applies in relation to an action referred to in subsections (1) and (2).
  - (6) Sections 28, 32 and 35 of this Act apply in relation to an action referred to subsections (1) and (2), but otherwise Parts 2 and 3 of this Act (except sections 37 and 38) do not apply for the purposes of this section.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides for the limitation periods in England and Wales for the rights of action created by the previous two new clauses tabled by the Minister.

249

Insert the following new Clause –

“Liability relating to construction products: limitation in Scotland

- (1) The Prescription and Limitation (Scotland) Act 1973 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 18ZC insert –

“18ZD Actions relating to construction products

- (1) An action under section (Liability relating to construction products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 may not be brought after the expiration of 15 years from the date on which the right of action accrued (see subsection (8) of that section).
- (2) An action under section (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 may not be brought after –
  - (a) if the right of action accrued before the commencement date, the expiration of the period of 30 years from the date on which it accrued (see subsection (8) of that section), and
  - (b) if the right of action accrued on or after the commencement date, the expiration of the period of 15 years beginning with the date on which it accrued.
- (3) In a case where –
  - (a) a right of action under section (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 accrued before the commencement date, and
  - (b) the expiration of the period of 30 years beginning with the date on which the right of action accrued falls in the year beginning with the commencement date,
 subsection (2)(a) has effect as if it referred to the expiration of that year.

- (4) In subsections (2) and (3) “the commencement date” is the day on which section (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 came into force.
- (5) No other period of limitation specified by this Part of this Act applies in relation to an action referred to in subsection (1) or (2).
- (6) In the computation of a period of time specified in subsection (1) or (2), there is to be disregarded any time during which the person seeking to bring the action (P) –
- (a) was under a legal disability by reason of nonage or unsoundness of mind, or
  - (b) failed to bring the action by reason of –
    - (i) fraud on the part of the person against whom the action is to be brought (D) or the part of any person acting on D’s behalf, or
    - (ii) error induced by words or conduct of D or any person acting on D’s behalf,
 (but not including, for the purposes of paragraph (b), any time occurring after P could with reasonable diligence have discovered the fraud or error mentioned in that paragraph).
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6)(b), it does not matter whether D, or the person acting on D’s behalf, intended the fraud or the words or conduct to cause P to fail to bring the action.”
- (3) In section 7(2) (extinction of obligations by prescriptive periods of twenty years), at the end insert “or any obligation to pay damages arising from liability under section (Liability relating to construction products) or (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products) of the Building Safety Act 2022 (see section 18ZD of this Act).”
- (4) In section 19CA(1) (interruption of limitation period: arbitration), after “18ZC(2)” insert “, 18ZD(1) or (2)”.
- (5) In Schedule 1, in paragraph 2 (exceptions from the 5 year prescriptive period under section 6), after paragraph (ga) insert –
- “(gb) to any obligation to pay damages arising from liability under section (Liability relating to construction products) or (Liability for past defaults relating to cladding products) of the Building Safety Act 2022;”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides for the limitation periods in Scotland for the proposed new rights of action relating to construction products.

250

Insert the following new Clause –

“Construction products: costs contribution orders

Costs contribution orders: general definitions

In this section and sections (Costs contribution orders made by courts) to (Costs contribution orders: assessments) –

“the 2011 Regulation” means Regulation (EU) No. 305/2011 (regulation laying down harmonised conditions for the marketing of construction products);

“the 2019 Regulations” means the Construction Products (Amendment etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 (S.I. 2019/465);

“construction product” –

- (a) in relation to a construction product requirement under construction products regulations, has the meaning specified in those regulations;
- (b) in relation to a construction product requirement under the 2011 Regulation, has the meaning specified in the 2011 Regulation (or, in Northern Ireland, in the 2011 Regulation as having effect in EU law from time to time);
- (c) in relation to a construction product requirement under the 2019 Regulations, has the meaning specified in the 2011 Regulation as it had effect immediately before IP completion day;
- (d) in relation to a construction product requirement under the 2020 Regulations, has the meaning given by regulation 2 of those Regulations;

“construction products regulations” means regulations under paragraph 1 of Schedule 12;

“construction product requirement”, in England and Wales or Scotland, means a requirement under –

- (a) construction products regulations,
- (b) the 2011 Regulation, or
- (c) the 2019 Regulations;

“construction product requirement”, in Northern Ireland, means a requirement under –

- (a) construction product regulations,
- (b) the 2011 Regulation as having effect from time to time in EU law,
- (c) the 2019 Regulations, or
- (d) the 2020 Regulations;

references to an “interest” in a building or dwelling include –

- (a) in England and Wales, any legal or equitable interest in the building or dwelling;
- (b) in Scotland, any right or interest (including a servitude or heritable security) in or over the building or dwelling;
- (c) in Northern Ireland, any estate within the meaning given by section 45(2) of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 in the building or dwelling;

“relevant building” means –

- (a) a building which consists of a dwelling, or
- (b) a building which contains two or more dwellings;

“requirement” includes a prohibition or restriction.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new Clause contains definitions relevant to the new Clauses tabled by the Minister in relation to costs contribution orders in respect of construction products.

251 Insert the following new Clause –

“Costs contribution orders made by courts

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for courts to make costs contribution orders on the application of the Secretary of State.
- (2) The regulations may only make provision for the making of costs contribution orders under this section in cases where –
  - (a) Conditions A to D are met, and
  - (b) any prescribed conditions are met.
- (3) Condition A is that a person (“the defaulter”) is convicted of an offence consisting of a failure to comply with a construction product requirement in relation to a construction product.
- (4) Condition B is that, after the failure to comply referred to in subsection (3), the construction product is installed in, or applied or attached to, a relevant building in the course of works carried out in the construction of, or otherwise in relation to, the building.
- (5) Condition C is that, when those works are completed –
  - (a) in a case where the relevant building consists of a dwelling, the building is unfit for habitation, or
  - (b) in a case where the relevant building contains one or more dwellings, a dwelling contained in the building is unfit for habitation.
- (6) Condition D is that the failure to comply referred to in subsection (3) was the cause, or one of the causes, of the building or dwelling being unfit for habitation.
- (7) A “costs contribution order” under this section is an order requiring the defaulter to pay an amount to a person with a prescribed interest in the building or any dwelling contained in the building.
- (8) Regulations under this section must provide for the amount to be paid to a person under a costs contribution order under this section to be such amount as the court making the order considers just and equitable in respect of the costs that the person has reasonably incurred, or in the view of the court is likely to reasonably incur, in respect of works to make the building or dwelling fit for habitation.
- (9) The regulations may make provision as to the matters which may or must be taken into account by a court in determining –
  - (a) whether, against whom and in favour of whom to make a costs contribution order under this section;
  - (b) the amount required to be paid by a person under a costs contribution order under this section.
- (10) The regulations may make provision in relation to –
  - (a) enforcement of a costs contribution order under this section;
  - (b) court powers to order the defaulter to pay –

- (i) any costs incurred by the Secretary of State under regulations under section (Costs contribution orders: assessments)(assessments) in respect of the application, and
  - (ii) any costs incurred by the Secretary of State in making the application.
- (11) The regulations may make provision about how a costs contribution order under this section relates to other remedies, including in particular—
- (a) provision to secure that, taking a costs contribution order under this section together with other remedies—
    - (i) a person does not incur liability more than once in respect of the same costs;
    - (ii) a person is not entitled to be reimbursed more than once for the same costs;
  - (b) provision preventing a person to whom any amount is payable under a costs contribution order under this section from pursuing any other legal remedy for the recovery of such an amount.
- (12) In this section “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations under this section.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause confers a regulation-making power for the courts to make costs contribution orders.

252

Insert the following new Clause—

“Costs contribution orders made by the Secretary of State

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the Secretary of State to make costs contribution orders.
- (2) The regulations may only make provision for the making of costs contribution orders in cases where—
  - (a) Conditions A to D are met, and
  - (b) any prescribed conditions are met.
- (3) Condition A is that a person (“the defaulter”) is convicted of an offence consisting of a failure to comply with a construction product requirement in relation to a construction product.
- (4) Condition B is that, after the failure to comply referred to in subsection (3), the construction product is installed in, or applied or attached to, a relevant building in the course of works carried out in the construction of, or otherwise in relation to, the building.
- (5) Condition C is that, when those works are completed—
  - (a) in a case where the relevant building consists of a dwelling, the building is unfit for habitation, or
  - (b) in a case where the relevant building contains one or more dwellings, a dwelling contained in the building is unfit for habitation.

- (6) Condition D is that the failure to comply referred to in subsection (3) was the cause, or one of the causes, of the building or dwelling being unfit for habitation.
- (7) A “costs contribution order” under this section is an order requiring the defaulter to make a payment to a person with a prescribed interest in the building or any dwelling contained in the building.
- (8) Regulations under this section must provide for the amount to be paid to a person under a costs contribution order under this section to be such amount as the Secretary of State considers just and equitable in respect of the costs that the person has reasonably incurred, or in the view of the Secretary of State is likely to reasonably incur, in respect of works to make the building or dwelling fit for habitation.
- (9) The regulations may make provision as to the matters which may or must be taken into account by the Secretary of State in determining –
  - (a) whether, against whom, and in favour of whom, to make a costs contribution order under this section;
  - (b) the amount required to be paid by a person under a costs contribution order under this section.
- (10) The regulations may make provision for the Secretary of State to issue a warning notice to a person before determining whether to make a costs contribution order under this section against that person.
- (11) The regulations may make provision requiring that a costs contribution order under this section –
  - (a) be made in a prescribed form;
  - (b) contain prescribed information.
- (12) The regulations may make provision about service of a costs contribution order under this section including –
  - (a) how an order is to be served;
  - (b) when an order is to be taken as having been served;
  - (c) the persons on whom an order must be served.
- (13) The regulations may make provision in relation to –
  - (a) enforcement of a costs contribution order made under this section (including enforcement by the Secretary of State);
  - (b) powers of the Secretary of State to order the defaulter to pay any costs incurred by the Secretary of State under section (Costs contribution orders: assessments) in respect of a costs contribution order under this section.
- (14) The regulations may make provision about how a costs contribution order under this section relates to other remedies, including in particular –
  - (a) provision to secure that, taking a costs contribution order under this section together with other remedies –
    - (i) a person does not incur liability more than once in respect of the same costs;
    - (ii) a person is not entitled to be reimbursed more than once for the same costs;

- (b) provision preventing a person to whom any amount is payable under a costs contribution order under this section from pursuing any other legal remedy for the recovery of such an amount.
- (15) The regulations may make provision for persons to apply to the Secretary of State for a review of a costs contribution order under this section.
- (16) The regulations may make provision for appeals to a court or tribunal in relation to—
  - (a) a decision of the Secretary of State to make or not make a costs contribution order under this section;
  - (b) a refusal by the Secretary of State to review a costs contribution order under this section;
  - (c) the outcome of a review by the Secretary of State of a costs contribution order under this section.
- (17) The regulations may in particular include provision suspending a requirement to pay an amount due under a costs contribution order under this section pending the determination or withdrawal of an appeal or the determination of a review.
- (18) In this section “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations under this section.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause confers a regulation-making power for the Secretary of State to make costs contribution orders.

253

Insert the following new Clause—

“Costs contribution orders: assessments

- (1) For the purposes of sections (Costs contribution orders made by courts) and (Costs contribution orders made by Secretary of State), the Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the Secretary of State to appoint persons to assess—
  - (a) whether the conditions for the imposition of a costs contribution order under either of those sections are met;
  - (b) the works required to make a building or dwelling fit for habitation;
  - (c) what interest a person has in a building or dwelling;
  - (d) the costs that a person has reasonably incurred or is likely to reasonably incur in respect of works referred to in paragraph (b);
  - (e) the amount that a person should be required to pay under a costs contribution order.
- (2) The regulations may include provision about the criteria to be met by a person before they may be appointed as an assessor.
- (3) The regulations may make provision about assessments, including provision—
  - (a) conferring power on an assessor to require that persons provide such information as the assessor may reasonably require for the purposes of an assessment;

- (b) for the provision of information by an assessor to the Secretary of State (including any information provided under paragraph (a)).
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3)(a) may include provision for criminal offences relating to a failure to provide information, or to the provision of false or misleading information.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (3)(a) creating a criminal offence must have the effect that—
  - (a) the offence is—
    - (i) triable summarily only, or
    - (ii) triable summarily or on indictment,
  - (b) the offence is punishable only—
    - (i) with a fine, or
    - (ii) with a term of imprisonment or a fine (or both),
  - (c) where the offence is triable summarily only, any fine with which the offence is punishable in Scotland or Northern Ireland does not exceed level 5 on the standard scale,
  - (d) where the offence is triable summarily or on indictment, any fine with which the offence is punishable on summary conviction in Scotland or Northern Ireland does not exceed the statutory maximum, and
  - (e) any term of imprisonment with which the offence is punishable on summary conviction does not exceed—
    - (i) in England and Wales, the relevant period,
    - (ii) in Scotland, 12 months, and
    - (iii) in Northern Ireland, 6 months.
- (6) In subsection (5)(e)(i), “the relevant period” means—
  - (a) in relation to an offence that is triable summarily only—
    - (i) where the offence is committed before the coming into force of section 281 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, 6 months, and
    - (ii) where the offence is committed after that time, 51 weeks;
  - (b) in relation to an offence that is triable summarily or on indictment—
    - (i) where the offence is committed before the coming into force of paragraph 24(2) of Schedule 22 to the Sentencing Act 2020, 6 months, and
    - (ii) where the offence is committed after that time, 12 months.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (3)(b) may make provision for the purpose of securing that there is (taking into account any power or duty to provide information under the regulations) no contravention of the data protection legislation.
- (8) In subsection (7), “data protection legislation” has the same meaning as in the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3 of that Act).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause confers a regulation-making power relating to assessments for the purposes of costs contribution orders.

LORD FOSTER OF BATH
BARONESS BRINTON

254 Insert the following new Clause –

“Sale of goods online for use in buildings

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within one year of the passing of this Act, make regulations placing requirements on operators of online marketplaces to take reasonable steps to identify and remove from the online marketplace items which –
- (a) do not comply with safety legislation, or
  - (b) have been withdrawn or recalled by any person in accordance with safety legislation,
- and that are of such a kind that are, or may be reasonably assumed to be, for use in buildings.
- (2) Regulations made pursuant to subsection (1) –
- (a) must specify what in the opinion of the Secretary of State constitutes “reasonable steps”,
  - (b) may specify which items this section applies to, and
  - (c) may specify penalties for failure to comply with the regulations.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The purpose of this Clause is to improve the safety of buildings by preventing the sale of faulty electrical goods that can cause fires. This is particularly important in high-rise buildings in which fires can, and in the past have, spread causing fatalities.

This amendment expands the right of appeal to include leaseholders who are liable to pay their landlord's costs of complying with notices.

After Clause 150

LORD FOSTER OF BATH

261 Insert the following new Clause—

“Existing homes: standards

- (1) This section applies to domestic properties that have been used as such since before this Act is passed.
- (2) The Secretary of State must ensure that—
  - (a) all domestic properties achieve a minimum standard by 2035, and
  - (b) those domestic premises that, because of their standard, present a serious risk to the health, wellbeing or safety of people living in them, that the occupant is unable to rectify for financial or other reasons, achieve a minimum standard by 2030,where practical, cost-effective and affordable.
- (3) In this section a “minimum standard” is the achievement by the property of—
  - (a) Level C on an energy performance certificate issued under section 43 of the Energy Act 2011 (domestic energy efficiency regulations) or any amendment to that section made by the Secretary of State by regulations, or
  - (b) an equivalent level on any new method of measuring the energy efficiency of properties that may be adopted by the Secretary of State by regulations.
- (4) The duty in subsection (2) does not apply to a domestic property where the following exemptions apply—
  - (a) an occupant or anyone else whose permission is needed for works to be carried out has explicitly refused such permission,
  - (b) it is not technically feasible to fulfil the duty, or
  - (c) the cost of carrying out works to fulfil the duty would exceed £20,000.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations add to or change the exemptions referred to in subsection (4).
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations define the terms “practical”, “cost-effective” and “affordable”.
- (7) In this section “wellbeing” includes the ability of an occupant to keep warm at reasonable cost.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This Clause requires that existing homes achieve a minimum standard in order to protect the safety, health and wellbeing of occupants.

BARONESS JOLLY
 BARONESS YOUNG OF OLD SCONE
 BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
 LORD JORDAN

262 Insert the following new Clause—

“Consultation on staircase regulations

The Secretary of State must, within 6 months of the day on which this Act is passed, consult on regulations requiring staircases in all new build properties to comply with British Standard 5395-1.”

Clause 151

LORD GREENHALGH

263 Page 156, line 15, at end insert—

“(4) Where—

- (a) a relevant company is an accountable person for a higher-risk building (within the meaning of Part 4), and
- (b) one or more (but not all) directors of the relevant company have been appointed for a building safety purpose and are entitled to remuneration from the company, this section, so far as relating to Part 4, does not apply in relation to a director who is not entitled to remuneration from the relevant company.

(5) In subsection (4)—

“building safety purpose” means the purpose of supporting the relevant company in complying with its duties under Part 4 or under regulations made under that Part;

“relevant company” means—

- (a) a resident management company within the meaning of section ( Building safety directors of resident management companies),
- (b) an RTM company within the meaning of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 (right to manage), or
- (c) a company that is a commonhold association within the meaning of Part 1 of that Act (see section 34).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that, in relation to certain residents’ companies, this Clause - so far as relating to Part 4 - does not apply to unpaid directors if there are paid directors, appointed for a building safety purpose.
